Rusk Waits Appeal Of Nonaligned Bloc For Viet Nam Peace

Steel Reels Under USW Package Bid

Demands Seen As Dimming Hopes For May Accord

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The basic steel industry was described today as staggered by union demands that pay and benefits be hiked by nearly $1 an hour over the next three years.

"This puts the billion-dollar bundle to shame," said one industry figure. He referred to 1959 when the union asked for 45 cents an hour in wages alone and settled after a 116-day strike for a total package of 40 cents.

"Preposterous," was the reported reaction of R. Conrad Cooper, chief of the four-man industry team bargaining with the United Steelworkers of America, AFL-CIO.

Industry sources said the size of demands dims hope for settlement before May 1 when the union is free to strike.

Steelworkers already are among the highest paid industrial workers in the nation. They average about $3.37 an hour in pay and another $1.04 in benefits.

Their demands, which became known Wednesday, include:

Double time for all overtime, pay increases in the first and third year ranging from 12.5 cents for the lowest paid workers to 28 cents for top grades, a shortened work week, an eighth paid holiday, improved pensions and expanded supplemental unemployment benefits.

The industry has said it will not settle for more than about 26 cents an hour over three years.

The economic package does ask improved pensions, but does not say anything about early retirement.

Instead of asking an increase in unemployment benefits, which now guarantees a worker 60 per cent of his pay for one year, the union is seeking only a longer period of payment.

Dynamite Bomb Rips Negro Home In Birmingham

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP) — A dynamite bomb shattered a Negro home today and two other bombs were disarmed at the homes of Mayor Albert Boutwell and City Councilwoman Nina Miglionico.

Police cars were dispatched immediately to the homes of the eight other council members.

The bomb at Miss Miglionico's house was found on the second step of her front porch by her father when he came out to get the morning paper. Police said he reached inside the box containing the bomb and ripped out the timing mechanism.

Police who were dispatched to the mayor's house about a mile away found a bomb at the side of the sprawling brick structure. Officers disarmed it.

There was no warning, no threats of the bombing of the residence of Negro accountant T.L. Crowell across town from the mayor's home.

His son, Weymouth, 13, was treated for a cut hand.

The frightened mother, an elementary school teacher, said he was "more frightened than hurt."

It was the first actual bombing in Birmingham since Sept. 24, 1963, when a shrapnel explosive hurled bolts and pieces of metal over a wide area in a quiet Negro neighborhood.

Only a few days before, a bomb killed four Negro children attending Sunday School in the 16th Street Baptist Church. Two other Negroes died in the violent aftermath.

More Racial Unrest Due In Alabama Town

CAMDEN, Ala. (AP) — This town of 2,500 — where smoke bombs were used to break up a march — braced today for more civil rights demonstrations designed to spark a school boycott linked to voter registration.

The immediate target was Camden Academy, the only Negro school in the county where attendance remained high during the Selma-to-Montgomery march.

"We'll be back," said the Negro boys and girls after two face-to-face confrontations with authorities Wednesday. "We'll march again with a permit."

Negro leaders expressed similar views in other locations.

The Rev. Frederick D. Reese of Selma said there would be no cessation of demonstrations "until there are no barriers to free (voter) registration of Negroes."

U.S. Claims Hanoi Holds Truce 'Key'

No Indication Of Negotiations, Gen. Maxwell Reveals

WASHINGTON (AP) — Representatives of 16 nonaligned governments meet today with Secretary of State Dean Rusk to appeal for Vietnamese peace negotiations with no strings attached.

Although the United States has kept the door open to possible negotiations, Washington officials said North Viet Nam has given no hint that it intends to abandon its assault on South Viet Nam. This, in the American view, is a prerequisite to any peace talks.

Ambassador Maxwell D. Taylor talked with newsmen Wednesday night after meeting with President Johnson, and gave no indication that any negotiations were in the offing.

Asked by a reporter if he thought the air strikes on North Viet Nam were bringing the Hanoi regime any closer to negotiations, Taylor said: "I have no yardstick to measure the distance to the conference table."

The State Department had no comment on a letter written by William Warbey, a leftwing Laborite member of the British Parliament, to the London Times.

Warbey wrote that the North Vietnamese leadership is not demanding withdrawal of American troops as a condition for a cease-fire. He said President Ho Chi Minh told him 10 weeks ago in Hanoi that the only precondition to a conference is a cease-fire.

Although Johnson and top administration officials have declared regularly that the United States has no intention of pulling out of South Viet Nam, Red Chinese Premier Chou En-lai demanded such a withdrawal again Wednesday night.

Resident Of Salem Dies In Incident At Sebring Home

SEBRING — A Salem man was shot to death and two women were wounded just before midnight Wednesday night at a home here.

An hour after the shooting Sebring Police Chief Paul Gednetz arrested an Alliance man, 27-year-old Erwin Perry Smith. First-degree murder charges were later filed against Smith.

Killed in the shooting was Robert L. Wilson, 28, who was married and lived in a trailer park on Ohio 62 near Salem.

Wounded and taken to Alliance City Hospital, where they were listed in fair condition, were Smith's ex-wife, Sandra Briggs, 24, and Linda Cavella, 17, of Canton.

The shooting occurred at Miss Briggs' home.

Chief Gednetz said Smith surrendered, without resisting, at his parents' home in Alliance. The gun used in the shooting, a small caliber revolver, was not found, the chief said.

Police found Wilson lying on the front steps of Miss Briggs' house. He was shot in the chest, and was dead on arrival at Alliance City Hospital.

The two women said Smith broke into the house through a basement window, went upstairs to the living room and fired at Wilson and them.

Bomber Test Flights To Bring Sonic Boom

The Strategic Air Command today began a series of regular test flights over the Tri - State District with B-58 Hustler bombers and loud sonic booms may result occasionally as the planes hit speeds up to 1,300 miles an hour, the Air Force warned.

The flights may occur any day in the week between 7 a. m. and 10 p. m., the Air Force said. Because the bombers fly at altitudes over 35,000 feet, the booms may be comparatively weak, it added.

The simulated bombing runs will be made over a route 40 miles wide stretching from Tyner, Ky., to Brookville, Pa.

Thousands Of Travelers Grounded

Pilots' Strike Cripples Pan American Operations

NEW YORK (AP) — A pilot strike crippled the globe-girdling operations of Pan American Airways today.

Pan Am, the country's largest international airline, announced a shutdown Wednesday night.

Thousands of travelers were grounded. But many others were rebooked on other overseas carriers.

The pilots said they would continue to fly government-chartered flights to South Viet Nam, Germany and other points where the United States has military installations.

The AFL-CIO Air Line Pilots Association declared the strike in effect at 7 o'clock Wednesday night after contract negotiations here collapsed. The union said at its Chicago headquarters that all flights that began before the strike call would continue to their scheduled destinations and no passenger would be stranded far from home.

The union has 1,528 members employed by Pan Am, which has a total of 26,500 employes around the world. The airline serves 17 American gateway cities and more than three-score foreign countries. It normally carries 14,000 passengers a day, with about 4,000 of them streaming in and out of Kennedy Airport here.

Leverett Edwards, a member of the National Mediation Board, said the negotiations collapsed mainly over the issue of the number of hours a pilot can be required to remain on the flight deck. The pilots demanded a reduction in the basic 80-hours-a-month work schedule.

A union spokesman said in Chicago that the deadlock in talks was over the number of consecutive working hours for pilots. He said pilots could be required to work as many as 16 consecutive hours, and the union has been seeking a cut.

The spokesman said wages were not a stumbling block.

Bus Bill Foes Converge On Ohio Capital

Takes Spotlight From House Unit's OK Of Fund Bill

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Gov. James A. Rhodes' $1.4 billion general appropriations bill cleared the House Finance Committee but the action went almost unnoticed Wednesday night as the statehouse was swamped by an army of bus bill opponents.

Upwards of 1,200 crowded into the hearing room, throughout the third - floor hallway, and spilled down two stairways into the rotunda in what some lawmakers said was the biggest convergence on the capitol in their memory.

Only about 200 were able to squeeze into the hearing room where opposition witnesses were given their chance by the House Education Committee to talk on the controversial legislation which calls on school boards to extend bus transportation to private and church - affiliated school pupils.

Meanwhile, the House Finance Committee voted 23-1 to approve the general appropriations bill which includes record outlays, for health, education and welfare in the 1965-67 biennium.

The committee action cleared the way for a vote on the house floor next week.

Leadoff witness at the school bus hearing was Harold A. Goldstein, Cincinnati attorney who said he represented Jewish groups in Akron, Cleveland, Columbus, Dayton, and Youngstown as well as the Cincinnati Jewish Community Relations Committee.

Goldstein read a lengthy state-

$21,000 Loss Listed In New Brighton Fire

NEW BRIGHTON — Damage was estimated in excess of $21,000 in an early morning fire which leveled a building of the Peter Shaffer & Sons Feed Store.

The blaze, first reported at 3:45, leveled a 200-foot long frame building and destroyed five trucks, a high-lift and quantities of fertilizer, hay, lime, plaster and lumber.

The main building of the concern, housing the offices and additional materials, was not damaged.

Squeeze Play Stirs Hope Of School Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate Democratic leaders are perfecting a squeeze play they hope may deliver the House-passed $1.3 - billion education aid bill intact to President Johnson next week.

But Southern opponents of the administration's voting - rights bill and critics of the school measure could upset this timing if they choose to offer controversial amendments and talk at length.

Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield said in an interview he has tentative assurances that the Senate Labor and Public Welfare Committee will act on the bill next Tuesday. If it does, he said he will try to bring it up in the Senate on Wednesday.

Unless Southerners resort to delaying tactics, Mansfield said he believes the bill can be passed in three days. But he lacks any indication, he said, whether the voting-rights opponents may use this opportunity to stall consideration of the latter measure.

Action Questions Double Taxation

Asserting that "double taxation" in East Liverpool and Midland is taking 1.8 per cent of his gross earnings, a College St. steelworker filed a civil action Wednesday in Common Pleas Court at Lisbon asking for a declaratory judgment and determination of his rights under tax withholding in the two communities.

Eugene Thomas, 506 College St. filed the action, which names as defendants the City of East Liverpool and the Midland Works of Crucible Steel Co.

By coincidence, Thomas was convicted today in Municipal Court on charges dating back to March 1 alleging that he violated the tax ordinance by failure to file returns.

The Lisbon court said the second case will be heard Friday, April 30, at 10 a.m.

IT'S THE first direct test of the income tax ordinance, which has been in effect in East Liverpool in an on-and-off status since 1958. The question of petitions seeking a vote of the people on the measure was tried in Common Pleas Court and the 7th District Court of Appeals about two years ago, winding up in a victory for the plaintiffs.

Thomas asserts in his petition that the Midland income tax, withheld from his pay at the Midland plant, takes one per cent of his gross earnings. Then, he declared, he is required to pay another eight - tenths of one per cent by filing an individual return with the East Liverpool income tax office.

HIS PETITION alleges that the Midland tax ordinance went into effect Aug. 12, 1962, and the current East Liverpool tax law has been in force since March 1962.

Pointing out that the two laws account for taxation totaling 1.8 per cent of his gross income, Thomas claims that the taxation is illegal because the Ohio Constitution limits any city income tax to a maximum of one per cent without a vote of the people. The Constitution provides that if any subdivision imposes a tax of one per cent or more on income, it must be submitted to a vote of the people before it can go into effect.

THOMAS SOUGHT a temporary restraining order to prevent the steel company or the city from levying or collecting the tax until the question has been

Another U.S. Copter Shot Down In Viet

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Communist gunfire downed an American helicopter and killed a U.S. Army gunner on another helicopter in an operation 20 miles west of Saigon today.

Crewmen aboard the downed aircraft were reported safe. The other helicopter had just unloaded Vietnamese rangers and was taking off when its door gunner was hit. The helicopter made it safely back to base.

The Army man was the 316th American killed in combat in Viet Nam since December 1961.

Intelligence reports indicated that 100 to 200 Viet Cong were in the area. There were no immediate reports on the status of the battle.

Two American helicopter crewmen were killed Wednesday, 17 were wounded and four helicopters were shot down in fighting for control of Viet An, a strategic center in the mountains south of the Da Nang air base.

The fighting at Viet An appeared to have died down today. Nine South Vietnamese troops were killed and 20 missing. But U.S. sources said at least 50 Viet Cong also were dead. Two of the downed helicopters were recovered.

Tax

determined in the court. But the court said it will not act on the restraining order until the facts are heard.

In a ruling handed down today after hearing arguments in the local case from Solicitor Joseph W. Cooper and Atty. Robert Hartford of East Palestine, Thomas' counsel, Municipal Judge Samuel Chertoff declared that what the taxing corporation of a sister state does cannot affect the taxing authority in the state of Ohio.

As an example, he pointed out Pennsylvania's sales tax is higher than the three per cent tax imposed in Ohio, but an Ohio resident is not given credit of three per cent when he makes a purchase in Pennsylvania.

JUDGE CHERTOFF said he could not understand the defendant's defense, pointing out that no question of the constitutionality of the law was raised and the defendant did not attempt to show that he was exempt from certain provisions of the income tax ordinance.

The defense, the judge said, merely claimed that he was not guilty because he pays an income tax in Midland and therefore is exempt from paying the city's income tax.

Referring to an action decided in Hamilton County Common Pleas Court which was cited by Atty. Hartford, Judge Chertoff declared he could draw no analogy between that case and the present case.

—:—

IN THE Cincinnati case, the defendant lived in Loveland and worked in Cincinnati which are both Ohio corporations.

"Since one of the taxing bodies is a foreign corporation and not from Ohio, this court can see the difference in the two cases," he said.

In off-the-cuff remarks, Judge Chertoff told Thomas: "The best I can say is that I sympathize with you."

"The defendant is right in the middle. The court can see that if you had two jobs—one in Midland and another in Newell—you would have to pay three taxes."

—:—

JUDGE CHERTOFF commended those who drew up the city's ordinance for including a reciprocity agreement "because they realized the unfortunate circumstance" in which those residing in East Liverpool and employed out-of-state could be placed.

"The court feels the reciprocity clause in the city ordinance was included for good reason."

Atty. Hartford had termed the reciprocity provision as "significant" explaining that the Legislature, when it authorized municipal corporations to enact a tax of one per cent, omitted any provision for tax credits between communities.

HE CITED the Cincinnati case, which now is pending before the Supreme Court, pointing out the court ruled that the income tax can only be imposed where the income is earned.

Pointing out the city ordinance specifies a taxpayer as an individual or business, Atty. Hartford said the city concedes that it has no right to tax the earnings of a corporation outside of East Liverpool, but claims it has that right on individuals.

In rebuttal, Solicitor Cooper said the section cited by the defense concerns only the business allocation procedure for businesses and professions operating in two cities.

AS THE CASE opened, the solicitor and Atty. Hartford stipulated that Thomas was a resident of the city, that he was employed at Midland during the period in which the tax was imposed, that there is no reciprocity agreement between East Liverpool and Midland, that the Midland tax is one per cent, and that Thomas did fail to file a final return for 1963 and an estimate of his earnings for 1964 as required by city law.

Thomas entered a not guilty plea when arraigned March 18 in the local court on the criminal charge in connection with the city income tax.

Atty. Hartford asked time to prepare his case and the court then set the trial for today.

Hartford indicated his client planned a test of the tax law as it applies to East Liverpool residents employed at Midland and subject to the levies in both communities.

Thomas entered the "not guilty" plea on an affidavit alleging he failed to file an estimate on 1964 earnings and also did not furnish a final return on 1963 income.

—:—

BOTH REPORTS were due by April 15, 1964, according to the affidavit signed by D. G. Wilkinson, city tax commissioner.

Atty. Hartford commented to the court at that time that "we do not believe the ordinance is unconstitutional, but feel the enforcement of it is as it affects the defendant in this case."

The judge replied that a case is due before the Ohio Supreme Court on a similar trial taken up from Cincinnati, but he said the local court would not wait for the outcome of the ruling in Columbus.

—:—

THE SOUTHERN Ohio case involves a man who resides in a community outside Cincinnati and works in the metropolis. Both communities collect wage taxes and he contends the action is unlawful. The East Liverpool case is similar to the extent it involves two communities. But it differs, also, because the two communities are in different states.

The charge against Thomas was one of a series filed in Municipal Court March 1 by Wilkinson. Thomas originally was in court on March 10, when his case was continued to March 18.

She had worked at her Fifth Avenue office Monday, then became ill and was taken to New York Hospital Tuesday night.

She had been in the cosmetics business 63 years. Her firm now is a $100-million annual business.

Her career began by accident in Melbourne, Australia, while she was visiting her uncle's ranch.

The Australian housewives, with faces dried and roughened by the climate, began to borrow the facial cream she had brought with her from her native Poland.

She sent home for more and soon realized that she was spending most of her time advising women on beauty care. So she opened her own salon in Melbourne in 1902. A year and a half later she left Australia with $100,000 in profits.

She operated salons in London and Paris before coming to New York in 1915.

Miss Rubinstein was married twice. Her first husband was Edward Titus, an American she met in Australia and married in London in 1908. Her only immediate survivor, Roy Titus, board chairman of Helena Rubinstein, Inc., was born of this marriage. The Tituses were divorced in 1932.

Her second husband was Georgian Prince Artchil Gourielli-Tchkonia, who died the year after their 1937 marriage.

In an interview seven years ago, Miss Rubinstein was asked how she maintained her busy schedule.

"Keep healthy," she replied. "And always do first the things you most dislike to do. With them out of the way, you then will find you have plenty of time left to do what you want."

Both Friends, Foes Active

Pressure Forcing Steps To Broaden Voting Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — Pressures from both friends and foes of the administration's voting bill are forcing changes designed to broaden its coverage.

Northern liberals want the bill to stamp out voter discrimination wherever it exists. Southerners, regarding its enactment as inevitable, want it to apply everywhere, not just in their area. Both have hammered at the point since hearings began March 18.

As originally sent up by President Johnson, the bill would apply to Alabama, Alaska, Mississippi, Louisiana, Georgia, South Carolina and Virginia. It would also take in 34 counties in North Carolina and one county each in Arizona, Idaho and Maine.

Coverage would be determined by whether a state or any political subdivision used a literacy or similar voter-qualifying test and had less than half its voting-age population registered or voting last November.

In these areas literacy tests would be banned and federal examiners could be appointed to register voters.

Atty. Gen. Nicholas Katzenbach has spent days before House and Senate subcommittees defending the bill's pinpoint approach, but behind-the-scene negotiations have gone a long way toward altering it.

Just how far they have gone is expected to become apparent today when Katzenbach meets with Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen and other senators who helped the attorney general prepare the original bill.

Firman Asks For Freedom

COLUMBUS — Gordon (Spunky) Firman, sentenced for a 1960 Ohio crime spree, has filed for a writ of habeas corpus, seeking release from the Ohio Penitentiary.

Firman, now 25, claimed in a petition filed Tuesday with Common Pleas Court at Columbus that his Constitutional rights were violated in his trial and the trial court lacked jurisdiction in the case.

Firman is serving sentences of 19 to 96 years for kidnaping, armed robbery, breaking and entering, burglary, larceny and escaping from confinement.

During his month - long crime spree in the summer of 1960, Firman broke out of the Coshocton County Jail, kidnaped six persons, stole at least 12 cars and broke back into the Coshocton jail to free a friend.

Known as the bandit of Hardscrabble Hill, Firman and two accomplices robbed sleeping truck drivers who parked along Ohio 16.

In his petition, Firman said his conviction was contary to the Ohio Constitution and the Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth amendments to the U.S. Constitution.

How Can I?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. — How can I clean shellacked wood floors?

A. — These must be kept scrupulously waxed, or spilled water will leave white spots and blotches. Wipe up immediately if water is spilled. If soiled clean with a cloth moistened with alcohol, or with a mixture of turpentine and alcohol (equal parts). Rub lightly, or you might take up the shellac.

No Right To Speak

This country has wings sprouting all over itself — left wings, right wings, wings to the left of left and the right of right.

It's part of the current insanity of pigeonholing everybody and everything for easy identification.

The insanity would be compounded and reduced to idiocy if Ku Kluxers who are skirting treason with their antics were permitted to identify themselves as right-wingers.

No right-winger who takes his position in the political spectrum to heart will want to be identified with the KKK.

It is a wrong-wing outfit not right, not left, just wrong.

It is not in the political spectrum.

The right wing must reject it.

YET IN COLD fact the Kluxers are in politics up to the eyeholes in their headpieces — a certain kind of politics.

In states like Alabama, they put up much of the money and the oomph for candidates who measure down to their standards of bigotry and violence.

They supported George Wallace for governor; their support is on the record.

They are well-heeled. The speed with which they hustled up bail for the men who were arrested in connection with the latest murder and identified as Kluxers shows they have all the money they need.

They are in a certain kind of politics in the same way racketeers are in a certain kind of politics — as wrong-wingers.

NEITHER THE President of the United States nor any respectable officer of the government is under any constraint to deal with KKK spokesmen as part of the recognized political order.

For them to claim they speak for conservative Americans is as gross an insult as for party-line Communists to claim they speak for liberal Americans.

The Kluxers are laying claim to respectability they have not earned when they talk this way. They may be recognized as big men in Alabama. But they have no right to deal with President Johnson.

It would be a service if every right-wing organization would repudiate them.

If the Ku Klux Klan is permitted to seize a place in the right wing of American politics, the Mafia deserves to be next. It, too, believes in death for its foes and malicious falsehood for every one else.

Challenged!

Escalation Game

By David Lawrence

A Critical Moment In Viet Nam

The United States is involuntarily engaged in an escalation game in Viet Nam. The word escalation has often been used to imply that if one side takes a drastic course of military action, the other side will then retaliate and a succession of moves progressively more intensive and widespread will become inevitable.

David Lawrence

A critical moment indeed has been reached in the Viet Nam war. The United States, as the ally of the South Viet Nam government, recently found its own forces directly attacked and its installations destroyed, so a retaliatory move was made in the form of bombing raids on North Veit Nam. It was widely assumed then that the policy of the United States in dramatizing its military power would cause the North Viet Nam government and its ally, Red China, to hesitate about further steps that could provoke enlarged military action.

Now it has become apparent that the Communists are ready to risk a larger war. They have bombed the United States embassy in Saigon, killing and injuring Americans.

This is the kind of attack which the United States government cannot ignore. The embassy is American territory, and such an attack is a most serious occurrence. The embassy building in Saigon undoubtedly was the target which the Communists deliberately chose in planting the bomb — to see how far the United States would go in retaliation.

THERE HAS been much speculation as to what the American policy really is in Viet Nam. It has been suggested that the Washington government is feeling its way.

It's clear that the South Vietnamese are incapable of dealing with the situation on their own. Obviously, with all the support given by Red China to North Viet Nam, a weak government such as exists in Saigon cannot by itself possibly thwart the acts of invasion and aggression.

So the problem that squarely faces the United States is whether it will make good on the declaration by President Johnson the other day when he said: "The aggression from the north must be stopped." He stated again that the United States "still seeks no wider war," and that "we threaten no regime and covet no territory."

The practical situation, however, is that the Red Chinese and North Vietnamese evidently think that public opinion in the United States will restrain the American government from taking any drastic steps. Such instances as the vociferous condemnation by some Americans of the use of anti-riot gas may have indicated to the Communist that opinion in this country is divided about really stepping up the war and fulfilling America's pledges.

PRESIDENT Johnson, therefore, faces a real dilemma. Will the Red Chinese be allowed to believe that the United States eventually will throw in the sponge and that no vigorous military action will be taken because of a fear of escalation into a wider war?

This kind of question has faced other presidents, and it's reported that President Eisenhower at one critical moment in the Berlin crisis in 1959 left no doubt in the minds of the other side that, even if the situation escalated to the final point which might require the use of nuclear weapons, the United States was prepared to defend itself against attack with every weapon available.

President Johnson is confronted with constant criticism based on the idea that the South Viet Nam government has failed to win popular support and that all that is happening in the area is a revolution carried on by guerrillas supposedly fighting for high ideals.

The truth, however, is that the Red Chinese control what the Viet Cong and the North Vietnamese are doing and that the whole effort now is directed against the United States.

The attack on the embassy is a dramatic example of the extremes to which the North Vietnamese are prepared to go, since they have the backing of Red China and, to a lesser extent, of the Soviet government.

MEANWHILE, military men in the Pentagon, who are supposed to know how to fight a war, are frustrated by the influence exerted by those who are overly concerned about the diplomatic situation and fear that the United States may not get support abroad.

The military men see it differently. They say that there is no other way to fight a war except to set out to win it and that the moment temporizing is permitted, an escalation process really begins.

The United States faces a war something like that which occurred in Korea. It either has to exert maximum power and fight the war to a standstill, or it will find its forces constantly harassed and many lives endangered in Southeast Asia as the Communists become more and more aggressive.

This isn't a new problem in prewar periods. Most of the escalation into big wars in the past has been due to a failure of one side to construe correctly the determination of the other side.

The Communists are making a mistake now if they believe that they can attack a United States embassy building — American territory — and get away with it. It still remains to be seen just what method will be used to disillusion them.

Who's Escalating This War?

It is not known what the U.S. ambassador to South Viet Nam, Maxwell D. Taylor, reported to the White House on his latest trip home.

But whatever it was must have been offset by the shocking incident in Saigon, where the U.S. Embassy was bombed during Gen. Taylor's absence. This was no token act of terrorism. This was an open act of war.

The bombing was carried out by unfriendly people in Saigon indistinguishable from friendly inhabitants of the capital of South Viet Nam. They drove an auto loaded with explosives to the U.S. Embassy, parked it and left.

This could happen any time in Saigon. It could happen anywhere in South Viet Nam. Terrorists who do these things belong to the Viet Cong, composed for the most part of residents of South Viet Nam. They are comparable to the French "underground resistance" during World War II. They learned their guerrilla tactics from watching their former French overlords.

They have it within their power to escalate guerrilla warfare against the United States at any point they choose to apply additional pressure.

Thus, while the United States can escalate the South Vietnamese war effort only by a roundabout effort, because it is not at war with anyone, the Viet Cong can escalate its war against the United States by direct means. It is at war with the United States and says so.

No one can say where the next "escalation" will occur. All the advantage lies with the Viet Cong, whose members are on the scene and indistinguishable from the friendly forces of South Viet Nam.

In all probability, even the explosives for the Embassy attack came from South Viet Nam supplies furnished by the United States, where the Viet Cong has been getting most of its arms and ammunition.

Forgive Our Tears

There is a special sentiment about April that sets it apart from sentimental months like May, June, September and December.

April is a bitter-sweet occasion—a time for weeping.

This is not sad weeping commonplace in frustrating months like March, January and November. It is happy weeping the kind we see the newly-crowned Miss America do each year at Atlantic City, the kind that brides and the mothers of brides do at weddings.

Some of us weep with happiness only in our hearts because another ordeal by climate has been survived safely. But whether it's only in the heart or in the eyes as well, April weeping is a particular kind of sentiment.

And, of course, the skies weep, too. April showers help to make April a month apart from others — all this gentle squeezing of tears before the merry, flowerful month of May.

The White-Sheeted Underworld

By Victor Riesel

GRANITE QUARRY, N.C.

Operating from a chart prepared for me by the nation's most knowledgeable investigatory agency, I have spent the last few days probing the little known, unspotlighted communities in which Ku Klux Klan grand dragons operate.

Victor Riesel

This has taken me from McGee, Miss., where the most "vicious" KKK unit exists, to this town (43 miles northeast of Charlotte), where the best organized Klavern functions.

At one point during the crisscrossing of eight states I learned that a report has been placed on President Johnson's desk revealing the almost exact membership total of all active klans.

They have a few more than 10,000 members in all. There is positively no doubt of the accuracy of that figure.

Thus they are a cruelly terroristic, but tiny, strata of the millions of Southerners — many of whom have infiltrated some 200 kalverns and are reporting regularly to the FBI.

OF THE 10,000 Klansmen some 7,000 are active. They have no influence in any unions. They have interested no major business group. They are made up mostly of the unlettered, semi-literate, semi-skilled.

They operate like the mob. They are blackmailing and terrorizing small businesses which stand exposed, such as filling stations, little stores, marginal merchants.

They've organized themselves into what they call "Violent Action Groups." These are cadres of three or four men, such as the unit accused of killing Mrs. Viola Liuzzo. Some of these violent actionists are dedicated to a race war.

The FBI, which is positively not saying anything until the Justice Department puts its witnesses on the chair during the coming trial, has a list of many of these "groups."

What concerns the Justice Department, the FBI and the White House is the growing public reaction to the Klan. There is a grim and understandable tendency to overestimate its size and therefore in some circles give it the aura of "success."

THIS WOULD enable it to put on a profitable fund - raising campaign and to terrorize many workers into joining. Such an atmosphere can be created by erroneous reports that the many rival Klans have anywhere up to 65,000 members.

Klan wizards such as Robert Shelton circulate such clippings in an effort to prove that there is a mass KKK uprising in the South and everybody had better get onto the wave crest as it rolls by.

Shelton, who once worked in a big factory, wants to use this recruiting and fund raising technique among the swifly increasing number of industrial workers now moving southward with the vast space age installations.

Many labor leaders have been beaten or threatened by Klansmen in an effort to prove that opposition to the KKK can be dangerous if not fatal. One of those threatened is Claude Ramsay, a member of an old Southern family, who is president of the Mississippi AFL-CIO Council. He can tell some grim stories.

Another is Otis Matthews, financial secretary of Woodworkers Local 5-443, Laurel, Miss. He was taken out on a lonely road and beaten badly by Klansmen who warned him against fighting their propaganda.

THE KLANS, operating under varied and weird names, especially the notorious United Klans, hope to move northward quickly. Some of them have begun changing their bylaws to admit foreign born. This would enable them to recruit in Canada and along the border just this side of the line in heavily industrialized areas.

Reports now in FBI dossiers indicate that the Klan has cut Ohio into northern and south-central districts for recruiting purposes. The Grand Dragon reportedly works out of Columbus.

There are other plans for moving into Indiana and as far north as New York and Connecticut in the East and Michigan in the Midwest. Many Klan dragons remember the wartime racial rioting in the auto city and now hope they can find some veterans of that street fighting to join them.

All Klan wizards, dragons and cyclopses dream of a vast revival of the Klans' old political power, as much in the industrial Northern sectors as in the South.

But unless they are inflated so they can catch the interest of the social racketeers across the land, they will remain tiny, disconnected, albeit brutal, units until the FBI and the courts take them apart.

THESE ARE UNITS such as the one in McGee, Miss., which is considered by the federal authorities to be the most violent, die-hard vicious association now in existence.

Or the north Florida Klaverns, which are ultra — radical and "very dangerous."

Or the hooded ones in Jonesboro, La., described as "weapons conscious and prone to violence."

Or the United Klan here in Granit Quarry, which is the best organized of all and promotes membership by offering a special accident insurance policy and benefits to widows of followers who die of natural causes or are killed.

The time has come to take a cold hard look at this white-sheeted underworld.

Courage and cooperation with the FBI will smash the Klan. Hysteria will nurture it.

Purely Personal

We are in the nit-picking stage of another baseball season. There is nothing new to report so the writers try to stir up fights between managers and between managers and players. This is sports?

If Martin Luther King hadn't done all the things he was advised not to do, he still would be an unknown preacher in an unknown church, seething with frustration about treatment of Negroes.

The most sensitive writing I have seen lately was a collection of high school essays and poems, causing me to remember what usually is forgotten about writing—it must be thought before it can be written.

My physician brother has filled me in on the meaning of the saying, "You are as old as your arteries." If we could keep our circulation up to snuff, we could enjoy life longer and have longer lives. It's that simple.

Here is a desperation statistic to shudder about. Twenty years ago when the United States invaded Okinawa, where the Japanese knew they had to win or lose their home islands eventually, 1,900 kamikaze attacks were counted. More than 400 ships were hit, 36 of them for keeps.

Alabama's resourcefulness in finding excuses for doing what local bigots want to do knows no limits. It is all right to murder outsiders. Alabamaniacs are arguing, if they criticize local practices. The fact remains that murder is murder, even in Alabama.

I think Charles de Gaulle is a stimulating personality who makes himself unpopular by saying what other people lack courage to say. His latest shocker is a declaration that French scientists should deliver their lectures in French at international meetings, instead of yielding to the trend toward English as the international language.

There is a limit to the efficient size of cities, corporations and colleges. I think it is obvious that New York City is grossly and inefficiently overgrown, also that the size of tax-supported university campuses will have to be restricted.

My soft spot for agricultural endeavor hardens at cut-rate labor—children, seasonal labor from outside the country, women, convicts, etc. Labor Secretary Wirtz dropped a bomb on farm employers when he announced there would be no more seasonal importation of alien farm workers willing to work for coolie wages.

This time of year big companies start Ivory hunts among college graduates, pointing up a moral about employment? There is no unemployment among people who can give prospective employers a run for their money.

It happens every year, yet it always surprises me when it's daylight again at 6 a.m., starting time at the Twillery. It confirms the Spring Solstice, which otherwise is an abstraction I often confuse with Equinox.

I am so impressed with the importance of declaring names when encountering other people I announce my name to people I am reasonably sure would think of it without help and wish others would show me the same consideration.

Nothing I have written about recently has elicted more earnest agreement than the grim horror of the Ku Klux Klan when its bigotry was unleashed against Catholics, Jews and Negroes in small towns during the '20s.

When it comes to tree-planting, I always wonder if experts couldn't do the job faster with dynamite. Or do they?

Generally speaking the people I know fall into two broad categories — the ones who are mistrustful and sour about everything and the other ones who are sweet and trustful about everything. The former are usually successful, the latter usually not so successful. Except they're more fun to be around.

Today's highlight in history:

Klan Noted For Bickering

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON

In the past the Ku Klux Klan chopped itself up in fights between leaders. Today some of them still don't get along. Only three ever get into print much. They're the only ones who talk much.

They are two bickering Georgians — James R. Venable, 59, an Atlanta attorney, and Calvin F. Craig, 37, once in the dry-cleaning business — and Robert M. Shelton, 45, of Tuscaloosa, Ala. He used to work in a rubber plant.

Venable and Shelton recently got a lot of attention, Venable when he unsuspectingly took a Negro into his klan, and Shelton for calling President Johnson a "damn liar" after the President denounced the klan.

Venable, an attorney for several Klans, four years ago acted as attorney for Black Muslims arrested in Louisiana. He says that as an attorney he never backs off representing anyone because of race, color or creed.

He is chairman of the National Knights of The Ku Klux Klan, which is active in Georgia. Shelton is imperial wizard of the United Klans of America, largest of all the klans. Craig is grand dragon of Shelton's Georgia branch.

This year, when Craig let Atlanta newsmen witness an initiation into his klan, Venable said he had broken the klan's sworn secrecy and might face execution for high treason, although he said "'of course, our klan won't execute anybody."

But he talked of drawing up a resolution to drive Shelton and Craig out of klandom. Craig replied: "Venable shoots off his mouth because he knows so little about klankraft." He praised his group for having the only ladies auxiliary.

When Venable had a meeting last September near Stone Mountain, about 15 miles from Atlanta, the goings-on there were also reported in Atlanta newspapers.

At this meeting attorney Venable told his listeners: "You'll never be able to convict a white man that killed a nigger what (sic) encroaches on the white race in the South."

And last month Venable explained the kind of members his klan was seeking: "We're trying to get the sweat-box people in. Educated people have been brainwashed into believing in brotherly love — in peaceful coexistence." But he said he doesn't preach violence except in self-defense.

Shelton and Craig also insist they don't advocate violence. At a meeting several years ago in a pasture near Albany, Ga., Craig told a big crowd "I'm going to encourage self- protection.

"The Negroes are not going to be satisfied until we have an open racial war in this country. One race will have to dominate."

'Lion' Dominated March Weather, Copeland Says

"March came in like a lamb and went out like a lamb, but 'lioned' all month," Edwin Copeland, U.S. weather observer at Millport said today in a summary of last month's conditions.

The average temperature in March was 32.8 degrees, well below the normal 37.5 degrees for the month in his records.

The mercury ranged from a high of 61 degrees on March 28 to a low of 1 degree on the 21st, he said.

It rained 15 of the 31 days of the month, but precipitation still was below normal because the rainfalls were generally light.

Rain totaled 2.92 inches compared to the normal 3.26 inches for March, he explained. There were eight clear days, nine partly cloudy days and 14 cloudy days for 40 per cent sunshine—normal for the month.

Six inches of snow fell, over an inch and a half above the normal 4.4 inches.

There have been 29½ inches of snow so far this winter, about an inch over normal, Copeland reported. And there have been 11 nights of zero or below readings, which is just slightly under the norm.

Small grains need warmer weather to show whether they will fare well. There was some heavy frost damage during the winter, particularly to alfalfa, which in many areas was lifted through the soil.

In conclusion, Copeland referred to an adage which holds there is rarely good weather until Easter.

Tri - State District residents hope this proves to be an April Fool prediction.

How Can I?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. — How can I preserve soft rubber goods?

A. — Suspend these articles, or rest them on a rack, several inches from the bottom of their enclosure, in which place a small quantity of kerosene. The vapor will prevent cracking without injuring the rubber.

Newsboys Eye Fair Trip

Inspired by the posters, the two Review newspaperboys above anxiously are getting ready to plunge into the "Economy Reading Plan" subscription contest which could mean a trip to the New York World's Fair.

Science 'Pressuring' Diseases Of Mankind

CHICAGO (AP) — Science is putting the pressure on many of the diseases that plague mankind. Research in "hyperbarics" indicates that this new technique, involving administration of oxygen to the patient in a specially engineered high-pressured chamber, has helped during heart surgery and in treatment of a number of diseases.

Until recently, the equipment was extremely expensive but, improved design and fabrication techniques have made it possible to reduce production costs, placing the equipment within economic reach of many more hospitals and medical reserach centers.

Decked Out In Pajamas

Candidate Stages Lie-In To Insure An Honest Vote

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP) — Maurice R. Zumwalt, decked out in a pair of brown pajamas, turned a sit-in into a lie-in at the Board of Election Commissioners office.

Zumwalt, the Republican nominee for mayor in a traditionally Democratic city, wants the election board and the Board of Police Commissioners to station policemen at all of the city's 595 voting places during the April 6 municipal election.

"I'll stay," said Zumwalt, 62, "until the election or until the two boards assure me officers will be stationed at the polls to insure an honest vote," or until "I'm physically ejected."

Zumwalt walked into the Board of Election Commissioners office at 9:30 a.m. Wednesday with a suitcase containing a change of clothing, shaving gear and a toothbrush.

Milburn Shaw, chairman of the GOP City Central Committee, will keep Zumwalt company sporadically.

Two cots with sleeping bags, a television set, a radio and an ice box were set up in the lobby of the building for Zumwalt and Shaw.

Two red-coated waiters from a downtown restaurant served Zumwalt and Shaw a steak dinner Wednesday night and he ordered eggs, ham and wheat cakes with black coffee for breakfast today.

Zumwalt, a storm-door manufacturer, is facing Democratic nominee A. J. Cervantes in the April 6 election. Cervantes beat incumbent Mayor Raymond Tucker in the Democratic primary election.

For the first time in years, officers were not placed at all voting places during the March 9 primary election. A roving squad of policemen handled the election watching chores and no incidents were reported.

But, Zumwalt said: "Many people will not vote unless police are at the polling places. I believe we are in the right to demand police protection."

He wants a joint meeting of the police and election boards to discuss Republican charges of alleged vote fraud and intimidation in some wards during the primary.

THE ADOPTED CHILD

Q. Last year we adopted a baby girl. Should she be told? If so, when?

A. It is generally agreed that the adopted child should be told. There is no set way to go about it and it is probably best handled bit by bit, possibly beginning at the time of the inevitable question, "Where did I come from?" Details should be confined to what the child can understand. The word "adopted" should be used in a calm and matter-of-fact manner with continuing assurance of the adoptive parents' love.

COLOR OF MILK

Q. Why is milk white? Is it calcium that gives it this color?

A. No, the white appearance of milk is due to emulsified fat globules. The protein portion of milk alone, without fat, gives milk an opalescent bluish color.

PAIN vs. AGE

Q. As people get older do they react less severely to pain?

A. Yes. Pain sensitivity seems to decline with age.

Zing into spring! Corvair by Chevrolet

New Corvair Corsa Convertible and Sport Coupe top Corvair's 7-model lineup for '65—all with Body by Fisher.

The steering's crisper, the ride's flatter, the style's racier — even the grass looks a shade greener from behind the wheel of this new Corvair

You'll find a Corvair Corsa's instrument panel vastly more informative than an ordinary car's. But that's really only a fringe benefit of driving one.

Because for all its finely calibrated instrumentation —tachometer, manifold pressure gauge, even an electric clock with a sweep second hand for rally buffs— the most important thing that happens when you get a Corsa out on the road doesn't register on the dash. It registers on you.

You feel it in the steering—crisp and precise—as you double back on a curve. In the flat riveted-to-the-road stability of the new fully independent suspension. In the response of the rear engine (up to 180 hp available now in Corsa's Turbo-Charged version).

You don't have to wear a sports car cap and sun goggles to appreciate things like this. Or the clean international cut of Corvair's styling.

Drop down to your dealer's now—while the trading's extra good—and see for yourself. Look over the dashboard gadgetry all you like, but by all means get out on the road where you can really handle the merchandise. We'll guarantee spring will look greener, sun goggles or no.

Petitions Seek Action Against TV Cable Permit

CANTON, Ohio (AP) — More than 2,500 persons have signed petitions asking the city councils here and in Massillon and Alliance not to grant a franchise for Cable Antenna Television (CATV).

The move is backed by the Television Service Association of Stark County, which claims CATV has gone into service work in some cities and has told customers other servicemen can't repair sets on the cable.

CATV would involve construction of a huge antenna tower from which cable would be strung to individual homes, offering 12 channels for a monthly cost of about $5.

Five CATV companies have applied to council here and in Massillon and Alliance, seeking an exclusive franchise.

Bush Asked To Report On License Law

Wellsville City Council has requested Solicitor William Bush to attend its meeting Tuesday night at 7:30 to explain Ordinance 1721, which provides for licensing of pinball machines.

Bush usually attends the meetings, but in the past has refused to publicly discuss questions raised in regard to the licensing fees.

Councilman Walter Henthorne has asked him repeatedly if Robert Logan of Broadway, a former distributor, has paid his fees.

The letter requesting the solicitor's presence at the meeting is signed by Henthorne, chairman of the rules committee.

It follows:

"In order for Council to be accurately informed as to certain areas of city government, you are requested to attend the April 6 Council meeting. Please be prepared to report any and all information you have concerning Ordinance 1621 of the City of Wellsville, in reference to pinball machine licensing."

Rail Firm Would Sell Assets To A Merged Pennsy, NYC

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (AP) — The New Haven Railroad, short on cash but rich in assets, has agreed to sell virtually all it has to a merged Pennsylvania and New York Central Railroad system.

The sale, estimated at $140 million, would assure continuation of the bankrupt line's freight service, considered a vital part of New England's economy.

But it leaves the fate of the New Haven's profitless passenger and commuter system in the hands of state and federal officials.

They must come up with funds to salvage an operation the railroad's trustees said has lost $135 million in the past 10 years.

The transaction, dependent on Interstate Commerce Commission approval of the Pennsylvania-New York Central merger, specifically exempts the purchasers from any obligation to keep the passenger service going.

The New Haven's trustee announced the agreement Wednesday.

Under the agreement, the New Haven, in bankruptcy since July 1961 and in the red since 1957, would sell almost all of its buildings, equipment, land and other physical assets and investments. The package was valued by the trustees at $375 million as of Dec. 31, 1963.

In return, the New Haven would receive 950,000 shares of common stock of the combined system, $23 million in bonds, and $8 million in cash. The New Haven would also retain various assets valued at $27 million.

The Pennsy-Central would also assume certain New Haven debts. These totaled some $29 million as of Dec. 31, 1963, which would be the starting date for the agreement.

$1 Million Sought For Ohio Project

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Army Engineers Corps has asked Congress to appropriate $1 million to start construction of the Paint Creek Reservoir in Ohio as part of the Appalachia development program.

Lt. Col. S. W. Pinnell told a House Appropriations Subcommittee the reservoir is one of seven authorized in the Scioto River Basin and is a unit of the general plan for flood control for the Ohio River Basin. His testimony was made public today by the subcommittee.

Total estimated cost of the Paint Creek project is $23.8 million. The creek, in Ross and Highland counties, is a tributary of the Scioto River.

White Man Hanged In Africa In Bomb Death Of Woman

PRETORIA, South Africa (AP) — Frederick J. Harris, a white opponent of South Africa's racial laws, was hanged today for the death of a white woman killed in the bombing of the main Johannesburg railway station last year.

Harris, 27, a schoolteacher, had been chairman of South Africa's Nonracial Olympics Committee and campaigned publicly against apartheid in sports. His particular target was the exclusion of nonwhites from South African Olympic teams.

He admitted planting the bomb in the station concourse during an evening rush hour in protest against the apartheid policy of racial segregation. The court rejected his plea of temporary insanity.

In the bombing an elderly white woman was fatally injured and several white adults and children were badly hurt.

The government ignored a last-minute appeal for mercy cabled to President C. R. Swart by 10 members of the British Parliament. They said prospects of peace in Africa would be diminished by the execution.

Police put a tight security guard around the Pretoria jail throughout the night. They kept all vehicles away from the vicinity, and armed wardens patroled the surrounding area.

Only a few passing stragglers and a group of newsmen were near the jail at 5:30 a.m. when Harris went to the gallows.

His wife, Ann, and their 9-month-old son, Davey, saw him at the jail for the last time Wednesday.

Harris had appealed his death sentence to South Africa's highest court. He was turned down.

ment on the court history of school bus legislation and cited eight decisions "since 1947 which upheld the separation of church and state."

"No person should be taxed one cent for the support of another person's religion," he declared.

At that point, there was a burst of applause in the room B. A. Broughton, R - Geauga, committee chairman, hammered away with his gavel until the noise had subsided and then admonished the audience that demonstrations would not be allowed.

Later witnesses included Dr. Raul Calkins, Methodist minister from Kettering who contended the Council of Bishops of the Roman Catholic Church is seeking "parity from the public to support the Catholic school system."

The hearing climaxed a busy legislative day and followed by only a few hours the presentation of 400,000 signatures to the office of Gov. James A. Rhodes by the Citizens for Educational Freedom, which backs compulsory school bus legislation.

A new wrangle erupted in the Senate in a reported behind-the-scenes attempt by Republicans to resolve the dispute over Senate action on administrative appointments by Rhodes.

Democrats turned down five Rhodes' appointments five weeks ago when they had temporary (16-15) control of the upper chamber due to a Republican's illness. The action touched off a constitutional dilema which remains today although the appointees, at the governor's direction, have continued to serve.

Reports persisted that Republicans sought Democratic cooperation on a resolution withdrawing the five appointments, thus clearing the way for the governor to name them to other state jobs.

Three bills were passed by the Senate and sent to the House. They would provide for humane slaughter of livestock, raise from 16 to 18 the age of children protected against abandonment, torture, and non-support; and permit village councilmen to serve on volunteer fire departments.

House members gave their approval of five bills. They included one by Rep. Bernice Mackenzie, D-Stark, to require physicians to report child abuse cases to the welfare department as well as police.

Man's Best Companion

Memory Foe Of Boredom

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Memory is a foe of boredom.

That's why over a lifetime a man's memory is his best companion. It enables him to remember good times and bad times, but not dull times.

For some reason dull times don't stick in the memory. We forget them.

Your own life hasn't been so dull if you can look back and remember when—

John Barrymore became perhaps the first matinee idol in history to own his own yacht.

As a kid you hated to get a haircut because the tonic the barber sloshed on you left you smelling like a lilac bush for three days.

Away back in 1921 the State of Iowa made it legal for adults to buy cigarettes. Another historic decision that same year: Despite prohibition, the U.S. attorney general decided doctors still had the right to prescribe beer for medicinal use.

Only the wealthy had barbecue pits in their backyards. Common folks usually ate in the kitchen, summer or winter.

Few parents bothered to call a physician if a child developed a runny nose. Normal children were expected to have runny noses for at least a third of the year.

Any man who wore a handkerchief in the coat pocket next to his lapel was regarded as a dude.

When you went to the grocery store you didn't need a checkbook or a billfold. You could easily buy a day's supply of food with the money in your change purse.

There were five times as many dope addicts in the nation as are known now, but reformers were so busy fighting John Barleycorn they didn't pay much attention to the narcotics problem.

Nobody bothered to put his dog on a leash. Dogfights were as common on the streets then as car accidents are now.

It was generally accepted in the community that most teachers would remain old maids — and act like them.

The worst thing about people who had dared to take a ride in an airplane was that they never quit bragging about it. Some nuts even predicted the time would come when you'd be able to fly across the country in a single day.

Butter was a kind of status symbol. If a family was so hard up it had to use a substitute, it hid the fact from the neighbors.

It was thought to be a waste of money to send a girl to college. After all, what could "book larnin'" teach her about raising a family?

You could tell a grandmother by the color of her hair. It was an honored gray.

Only movie stars wore dark sunglasses in public.

Fall At Home Hurts Woman

A Wellsville woman was in "fair" condition today at City Hospital with hip and pelvis injuries suffered in a fall at home late Wednesday night. Six other area residents were treated at the hospital yesterday.

Mrs. Anna Victoria Hanlon of 18th St. Heights, wife of Charles Hanlon, was taken to the hospital by ambulance after she fell on the kitchen floor at home.

Mrs. Alice Freeman of 509 Buckeye Ave., Wellsville, was treated last night for bruises of a finger suffered on a chair.

James Merriman, 2, son of James Merriman of 1201 Center St., Wellsville, received a laceration of the foot when he jumped upon a curtain rod.

In a fall at play, Charles Joseph Martin, 5, son of Ben Martin of 420 Jefferson St., Newell, suffered a cut of the left hand.

Norman L. Horger, 52, of Westfield Rd. was treated for a cut of the right hand received on a storm sash.

Robert Johnson, 2, son of Joseph Johnson of Georgetown R.D. 1, suffered a cut of the eyebrow in a fall.

Danny Linkous, 18, of 225 Washington St. strained chest muscles while at work on an auto.

At Session On Tuesday

Designer Will Address Arts Club In Wellsville

Madame Shao Fan Sheng of Williamstown, W. Va., a noted art designer, will be guest speaker at the annual "Guest Night" observance of the Wellsville Arts Club Tuesday at 8 p. m. in the visual education room of Daw Junior High School.

Her topic will be "Chinese Philosophy on the Creative Art of Living." Madame Sheng was born in Tientsin, China, near Peking, where she studied art for several years.

She and her husband, Sheng Pao Sheng, an architect and engineer, came to the United States in 1947 under a fellowship which enabled them to work and study with Frank Lloyd Wright in Arizona and Wisconsin.

She works in water colors, oil, ceramics, jewelry and weaving. She has had "one-man" shows in 18 cities and 14 of her paintings were included in a loan exhibit to the Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York.

Aside from her creative activity, Madame Sheng is an accomplished cook and studies music.

Her most noted achievement is in the field of traditional Chinese water color and ink painting. She was commissioned by the Chinese government in 1944 to make a 45-day expedition into the Gobi Desert to make painted copies of paintings in the Cave of the Thousand Buddhas at Tun-huang, a Buddhist cliff sanctuary of the Fourth Century.

Her copies are the only records of the paintings, which date back to the Wei Dynasty in Chinese history.

Members of the membership and flower committees will serve as hostesses. The chairmen are Mrs. Bianca Eckfeld and Mrs. Cora Nichols.

Miss Luella Thompson is president.

Show To Help Scholar Fund

A variety show for the Wellsville "Dollars for Scholars" campaign of the Citizens Scholarship Fund will be held Wednesday, May 5, at the Wellsville High School auditorium.

The program is being sponsored by American Legion Post 70, the auxiliary and Local 172 of the American Federation of Musicians.

The show will feature local talent of all kinds. It will be directed by Mrs. Wilda Shaffer.

Anyone interested in performing may contact Mrs. Shaffer at 532-3044, Harry Excell at 532-4261, or call the Legion post at 532-0106.

Several acts already are lined up. The committee includes Excell, Kenneth Hoover, Daun Gitschier and Jerome Gitschier for the Legion, Mrs. Shaffer, Mrs. Betty Maylone, and Mrs. Evelyn Dickinson for the auxiliary and Bob Hall and Frank Craven for the musicians union.

Jerry Russell, who is co-chairman for the city-wide drive, will serve as treasurer for the group.

Group Will Stage Operetta Monday Night At Chester

At a meeting of the Chester Arts Club Tuesday night at the home of Mrs. William Erlitz of Phoenix Ave., it was announced that the operetta, "The Bartered Bride," will be presented by the Beaver Ohio Valley Opera Society, which is sponsored by the arts group, Monday night at 8 in the Chester Junior High School auditorium.

Mrs. Herman Logue, president, reported on the annual convention of the West Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs Thursday through Saturday at White Sulphur Springs.

Mrs. Lois McHenry presented a cosmetics demonstration.

Lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by Miss Eunice Abrams and Mrs. Kathryn Gregory, associate hostesses.

The club will attend the movie, "The Greatest Story Ever Told," in Pittsburgh for the next meeting April 27.

Today cancer is treated by surgery, X-rays, radioactive substances and various drugs, chemicals and hormones. This range of treatment has greatly improved the cure rate.

Johnson To Seek $2 Million To Promote Aerospace Show

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson plans to ask Congress for $2.5 million to stage a two-week international aerospace exposition in the summer of 1966 to sell American aviation and space products to government and commercial buyers from around the world.

Federal Aviation Administrator Najeeb E. Halaby reported after confering with Johnson Wednesday that such a show would enable the United States to go into competition with the Soviet Union, Britain and France in the aerospace product field.

-:-

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House has passed and sent to the Senate a bill to create an administration on aging to coordinate federal activities that deal with the elderly.

The vote Wednesday was 394 to 1 with Rep. Dave Martin, R-Neb., objecting on grounds no hearings had been held on it since 1963.

-:-

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Armed Services Committee cut $13 million from the military hardware and research authorization bill Wednesday but included unasked millions for an advanced bomber and two additional nuclear submarines.

The authorization measure — totaling $15,284,000,000 — was approved unanimously by the committee.

Hams Send Word County Man Safe In Chile's Quake

COLUMBIANA — Amateur radio operators in Chile and East Palestine have established that Charles Paul Austin, 23, son of Mrs. Grace Austin of Duquesne St. Ext., escaped unhurt in Sunday's earthquake in Chile, where he is a Peace Corps worker.

Austin has served since October in Valparaiso, where one third of the buildings were damaged by the quake.

A message received by John Remish, East Palestine "ham" operator, indicated Austin is "well except for a bad cold and will return to work Wednesday."

Advised that Mrs. Austin was attempting to get word about her son's safety, Remish attempted to make contact with Chile and Argentine operators Monday night and Tuesday, and was able to get relayed information Tuesday night that the Columbiana man was well.

2 Pittsburgh Towboat Firms Hit By Walkout

A crewmen's strike effective last midnight tied up operations of two Pittsburgh firms—Keystone Division of Dravo Corp. and Hillman Transportation Co. which have six craft in district waters.

The Marine Engineers Beneficial Association also is involved in the walkout. The two union's contracts ran out last midnight.

Your Liquor Costs, Consumption Rose

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — If you're an average Ohioan, you spent a dollar more for liquor and drank a half-pint more during 1964 than in 1963.

It's only statistics, of course, but if you don't drink, someone else did your share of quaffing —all according to the figures of State Auditor Chester W. Goble. Undoubtedly out-of-state visitors help boost the figures.

Goble reported final figures show the per capital expenditure for liquor last year amounted to $25.81 as against $24.81 for 1963, and that the average consumption was 9.26 pints against the 1963 average of 8.72 pints.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: Last Friday my husband packed his toothbrush, pajamas and good suit. Joe was off to his home town for an all-male get-together planned by some boyhood pals.

It was going to be a blast — seeing the fellows he grew up with. Joe's home town is a five-hour drive from here and he said he'd been sleeping at his folk's house if I should need him.

He rolled in about 4:30 Saturday afternoon, slightly hung over but aglow with stories of the great time he'd had. Of course he brought messages from his parents and others he had seen.

That same evening his mother telephoned. I asked her how she thought Joe looked. Well, she hadn't seen him since Christmas.

I told Joe that I knew he had not been home. So where was he? He looked me straight in the eye and said, "I was parked across the street 'til 2 a.m. watching the house. I thought you were running around and I didn't want to lose you."

I'm furious that he believes I would buy such a story. I'd like your comment. — GREENVILLE.

-:-

Dear Greenville: Joe must be a terribly inexperienced liar to have come up with that one. Your anger was a flattering response. Laughter is what he deserved.

Young Alcoholic

Dear Ann: I have a problem and I need help from someone who doesn't know me. My dad is an important man in town and I don't want to disgrace anybody.

I'm a boy, 16. Every weekend I drink a lot, whether I'm with other guys, with a date or by myself. Sometimes I don't even remember how I got home or what happened. I never drink during the week.

My parents know I take a drink but they don't know how much drinking I do. Have you ever heard of a guy 16 drinking like this? I try to make a rule that I won't drink more than four at the most but I can't follow the rule because I don't know when I lose count.

There never has been an alcoholic in our family and I would hate to be the first. Please held me. — SINKING FAST.

-:-

Dear Sinking: Maybe there never has been an alcoholic in your family before, but there's one now. You.

Trying to stop at four drinks is not the answer. An alcoholic should not have even a teaspoon of liquor. Tell your parents you are not well and that you want to see a doctor. Confide in the doctor and he will guide you.

Alcoholism is a symptom of a deeper problem. You must learn through therapy why you are so unhappy that you must get bombed out of your mind every weekend.

Hostile Mother

Dear Ann: This is for "Cornflower Blue," the woman who cautioned "ungrateful" children to be kind and attentive to their "mother while there is still time."

I have a 73-year-old mother but I can't go to see her more than once a week because she makes me sick. My mother always was domineering and ruthless. Her caustic tongue has caused me considerable anguish. We speak on the phone almost every day and every conversation has a needle in it for me.

My two brothers pay very little attention to mother but she never has felt the need to punish them. I have borne her hostility since childhood.

Every story has two sides and I hope you'll print mine for those who wish we could love our mothers, but we can't because they won't let us. — UNLOVED.

-:-

Dear Unloved: Here's your side. And please know you have my sympathy — and so does your mother. She probably got that way because of her mother.

Bill Offered On Numbers Slips 'Intent'

A bill requiring proof of knowledge of intended illegal use of blank order forms as numbers slips to convict a manufacturer of such forms under Ohio gambling laws was introduced in the House Wednesday by Rep. Clarence Wetzel of Lisbon.

The bill apparently is aimed at clarifying the legal aspects of printing the forms under the anti - gambling laws which brought an indictment against the Lisbon Sales Book Co. in 1961.

The firm and its four officers, headed by Martin Sufrin of Pittsburgh, president, was charged with printing numbers slips following a raid four years ago.

Judge Joel H. Sharp ruled the indictments invalid, in that the anti-gambling laws under which they were filed did not take the intent of the manufacturer into consideration.

The 7th District Court of Appeals reversed the judge and ordered the case tried, but the defendants filed an appeal to the Ohio Supreme Court, which last July ruled the anti-gambling laws valid.

Wetzel's bill would apparently require proof in the future that the manufacturer had knowledge that the blank forms were intended for use as number slips by the purchaser of the forms.

Authorities said the bill would not have any effect upon the Sufrin case.

Woman's Guilty In Gun Slaying Of Football Star

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Mrs. Hubert Marlin, head bowed and sobbing, walked quietly with her family out of criminal court Wednesday after her conviction of involuntary manslaughter in the shotgun slaying of a college football star she found in bed with her daughter.

A jury of 11 men and one woman deliberated four hours and 10 minutes before returning its verdict.

Judge John Draper sentenced Mrs. Marlin, 44, to 11 months and 29 days in jail and fined her $10.

Mrs. Marlin had been indicted on first-degree murder charges in the death of Charles Ray Neal, 20, of Lenoir City, Tenn., a youth she had found in bed with her oldest daughter on the icy morning of Jan. 16.

A first-degree murder conviction could have meant death in the state's electric chair. The sentence levied against her Wednesday, by law, could be suspended by Judge Draper.

Rogers Party Slated

ROGERS — An Easter party for children at the Rogers School will be held April 14 at the school by the Mothers Club. The club, which also plans a business session April 14, has canceled the regular meeting scheduled today, Mrs. Anna Marie Straub, president, said.

About 47,000 men and women will die of lung cancer in the United States this year.

Misguided Joke Believed Behind Phony Fire Call

A misplaced sense of humor was blamed by firemen for the false report of a fire late Wednesday afternoon at Osteopathic Hospital that saw most of the equipment in the city on the move.

Questioned when the report was first received, the caller calmly repeated the message that there was a fire at the hospital. However, he was not identified.

Four men from Central and two from North Side, along with pumpers, responded to the alarm at 5:07 p. m. Police also hurried to the scene in cruisers.

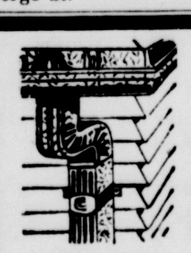

The pumper from the Pleasant Heights station also was en route, but was forced to a halt at W. 7th and Jefferson Sts. when a wire from the coil to the distributor fell off. The East End truck filled in at Central.

Because of several false alarms phoned in so far this year, firemen have attempted a double check to make certain of the location of the reported blaze.

The first grass fire of the season was out on arrival earlier yesterday afternoon. The call at 1:20 reported the fire on the property of Emil Birch, 1072 St. George St.

2 Drivers Forfeit

LISBON — Two drivers forfeited appearance bonds totaling $93.50 in Mayor Dean Stockman's court Wednesday. Charles W. Fulton Jr., 37, of Scenery Hill, Pa., forfeited $78.50 for driving an overloaded truck. He was cited by the State Highway Patrol. Dennis E. Hoffman, 27, of Degraff, Minn., forfeited $15 for failure to observe a red light on the Square.

Lisbon Dinner Draws 110

Cancer Society In County Launches $21,000 Drive

LISBON — A record crowd of 110 attended the Columbiana County Cancer Crusade kick-off dinner Wednesday evening at the Wick Hotel.

Galen Greenisen of Salem R.D. 2, chairman and volunteers today launched a month-long campaign for a goal of $21,000.

Dr. Robert L. Jenkins, a Youngstown physician and a trustee of the Ohio Division of the American Cancer Society, gave the volunteers a "faith, hope and charity" formula:

Faith that cancer will be conquered, hope that the cure is found soon, and charity in a combined act of love to comfort the sick and overcome the disease.

He gave a statistical picture of the killer which he said, takes 800 lives a day in the United States.

"Thirty people died from cancer during this dinner meeting," he stated.

Dr. Jenkins said one out of three cancer patients can be saved if the case is discovered and treated immediately. In this connection, crusaders will carry cancer literature for distribution to homes.

The drive seeks funds for the Cancer Society's educational program, research to find a cure, and services to provide physical comfort for cancer patients.

Others commenting on the April crusade were Mrs. Audrey Newtz of East Liverpool, president of the Columbiana County unit, Dr. William Kolozsi of Salem, county coroner and medical trustee of the county unit; and Warren Parrish of New Philadelphia, Northeastern Ohio field Representative.

Mrs. Wayne Calhoun of Lisbon, executive director of the county unit with headquarters in Lisbon, said campaign materials are available at headquarters between 10 a. m. and 4 p. m. She asked chairmen to get the material distributed to workers so the drive can be in full swing by next week.

Mrs. Calhoun also mentioned that the unit offers films and speakers for cancer education. Clubs and organizations may make arrangements through the county office.

The Rev. George D. Keister, pastor emeritus of Salem Emmanuel Lutheran Church, gave the invocation. Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Wilson of Lisbon were in charge of dinner arrangements.

Greenisen was master of ceremonies and announced the following community chairmen and organizations which will assist:

East Liverpool — Robert Curran and Harry McConnville; Wellsville — Mrs. Russell Dysert; Salem — James Coy; Lisbon—Mrs. Elaine Griffith, Business and Professional Women's Club.

Leetonia — Mrs. John Mellinger and George Trombitis, Tri-Hi-Y; Columbiana — Raymond Mackall; Rogers — Mrs. Earl Cope; Signal — Mrs. Earl Smith, Civic Club; West Point —Mr. and Mrs. Jack Pozenel; Hanoverton — Miss Josephine Furey, American Legion Post 684; East Palestine—Mrs. Gwenn Gallatin, Registered Nurses Organization; Clarkson — Mrs. Clyde Welch; Salineville — James Miller and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mundy.

Fairfield Township — Mrs. Wilber Furman and Lewis Kirk; Salem Township — Ike Skeels; Butler Township — Mrs. Robert Ward, Mr. and Mrs. Don Mayhew; Knox Township—Mrs. Atlee Freshley, Lions Club; West Township — Mrs. Fred Hahlen, and Yellow Creek Township — Mrs. Robert Boyce.

Sea Water

More and more people are drinking sea water.

Desalting water from the ocean still costs so much that it cannot compete commercially in most areas with fresh water from lakes and rivers, the National Geographic Society says. But the price has dropped dramatically — from about $5 to about $1 per thousand gallons since 1952, when Congress set up the Office of Saline Water to coordinate and expand research.

Meanwhile, water use continues to skyrocket. At the turn of the century, the United States used 40 billion gallons a day. In 1965 it will consume 359 billion gallons daily, the office estimates. By A.D. 2000 the nation's water needs will reach an estimated 880 billion gallons. Yet the country has only 515 billion gallons available from conventional sources.

Other countries face an even more critical shortage. Israeli officials estimate, for instance, that by 1971 their country will have to tap all the fresh water sources available.

Shy Actors At Oscar Time

For MGM's movie producer Joe Pasternak there are only three kinds of people in this world — male, female and actors. He does not make this differentiation in bitterness, although the past several weeks have put more than the ordinary strain on Joe's relations with many actors. The Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences chose Joe to put on its big "Oscar" TV show next Monday, and if there is one time in a producer's life when he feels neck-deep in too much temperament, this is the time.

Hal Humphrey

-:-

A MAJOR PROBLEM always is persuading big stars that there are more than four awards to be presented, and somebody must be willing to hand an Oscar to the man who did the best short subject or engineered the best special effect.

"Naturally there are four major awards, so naturally I found some of our people who want to present one of those four or nothing," Joe reports, with a resigned shrug.

Getting Audrey Hepburn to present the best actor award was a real coup for Joe. Miss Hepburn was considered a shoo-in to receive a nomination for her "My Fair Lady" role.

When she didn't get it, hardly anyone in Hollywood would have blamed her for telling Joe to take his TV show and get lost. Being asked to substitute for the stricken Patricia Neal (last year's Oscar winner) probably weighed in Miss Hepburn's decision.

-:-

JOAN CRAWFORD presents the best director Oscar, and Sidney Poitier, who won the actor Oscar in 1964, automatically is chosen for bestowing the statue to this year's best actress.

Gregory Peck almost caused Joe to recant on every ill thought he ever had for actors when Peck agreed to make the Oscar award for best picture.

"He even postponed a shooting start on a picture of his own to do it," Joe adds, like a proud father.

Joe believes the biggest source of glamour for a show of this type is lots of big names.

"I would like to have Katherine Hepburn there, but she didn't attend when she was nominated," Joe recalls. "Some people just can't take it. Jean Arthur is another one. I know she came out of retirement to do a 'Gunsmoke' show, but that's acting. She's terribly shy and finds it difficult to do these things."

-:-

JOE ALSO PUTS Doris Day in this category. In spite of the fact she again tops most of the industry polls as a box-office draw, Doris Day won't appear on Oscar night. "Too shy" is Joe's diagnosis, and he's stuck with it.

Like most veterans in this business (Joe's debut as a producer was "Three Smart Girls" with Deanna Durbin in 1937), he is sentimental about the people who were pioneers.

To salute this past, he will have several old timers spotted in the audience at Santa Monica Auditorium, including Pola Negri, Mary Astor, Ramon Novarro, Joe E. Brown and Buster Keaton.

Joe tried to organize a comedy sketch in which a group of stars were to play musical instruments. Apparently shyness set in again, because most of them gave Joe a polite "No, thanks."

-:-

AS THINGS STAND now, the comedy will have to come from Jimmy Durante and Martha Raye, being teamed as presenters, and the drama, Joe hopes, will be furnished when Dick "Dr. Kildare" Chamberlain and Vince "Ben Casey" Edwards appear together (for the first time!) to give away a brace of Oscars.

The ABC-TV Oscar ceremony is expected to run approximately two hours, but from past experience the Academy is putting no specific time limit on it.

"It will all depend on the length of the unnecessary speeches," Joe comments. "After all, how grateful can a person be about an award? But we'll find out."

A special tribute to the late Cole Porter will be sung by Judy Garland, and that will wrap it up — unless you hear Joe Pasternak saying "never again" under his breath.

Bringing Up A Family

By DR. GARRY MYERS

Parents Can Help Child's Progress

Frequently parents write of the child in the grades whose teacher complains to her about his "work" ways at school. He is not necessarily a dull child. More often than not he seems to be above average in mental ability but unfortunately the parent supposes she can correct this child's poor ways in the classroom by exhorting him, scolding or punishing him.

Dr. Garry Myers

Often, alas, the teacher encourages her in this supposition. For example, an Ohio mother writes:

"Our problem briefly is our 6½-year-old son, David, who is in the first grade and his poor work habits at school. These poor work habits are affecting his learning processes, especially reading.

—:—

"HIS TEACHER tells me that many times he will appear to be listening when they are discussing a lesson or problem, but when questioned he has been inattentive. She says that he contributes to the class discussion material which is unrelated to what they are discussing.

"During times when the children are to do their seat work, David plays with his crayons, talks with the boy behind him, or whoever he can (seating changes have not helped this). He doesn't complete his papers as he should. His papers are sometimes carelessly done.

His teacher tells me that he's polite and respectful to her and if she corrects him, he seems so repentant she's sure he will do better, but he forgets soon. She says she feels he is capable of doing the work, but does not apply himself. Other children like him and enjoy him. He partakes in many of their activities, especially the active things, with a great deal of enthusiasm.

—:—

"RECENTLY he seems to have a greater interest in school, at least he tells us much more of what they're doing in school. He also has brought home several papers with "twinkling stars" and very complimentary notes. These have brought forth praises from us and the school principal also has shown a great interest in his work. He seems proud of his work, but we need help to help him improve his work habits at school."

In the first place you should feel encouraged that your boy is growing interested in school. Fine that you applaud the good papers he brings home. Do display them on the kitchen wall.

Talking to your child at home about his poor ways at school can hardly help much. It could do harm, but there are ways at home in which you might help him very much.

First, read a great deal to him, some each day. There is no better way to cultviate concentration and attentiveness in him. Sometimes you might attract a few of his playmates to your home and read to all of them. In this way he could learn to be attentive along with other children.

—:—

SOMETIMES you might teach these children together with him to play a game or to make something. Here again he could have practice in working with other children.

When he does little chores at home like making his own bed, you could be pretty exacting with him, requiring that he does these chores carefully. When he copies or writes anything at home, encourage him to do it neatly.

Do be generous with approval when he brings home good papers. Celebrate his successes!

My bulletins, "The Child Who Doesn't Concentrate," and "Helping Child at Home in Early Steps of Reading," may be secured by sending a self - addressed, stamped envelope to me in care of The Review.

Ohio Colleges, Universities Drawn Into Fuss On 4 Issues

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio's state-supported and state-assisted colleges and universities have been drawn into the fuss over the four issues to appear on the May Primary ballot.

Three of the six state-supported schools have agreed to distribute 70,000 copies of a controversial pamphlet promoting the issues, two says it is against their policy and one is undecided.

At least one state - assisted school, the University of Akron, has agreed to distribute 50,000 copies of the pamphlet. State assisted schools are those which have received funds from statewide bond issues passed the last two years.

Spokesmen at Kent State and Bowling Green universities confirmed Wednesday they have received 15,000 and 5,000 copies of the pamphlet, respectively, but have not yet begun distribution. At Miami University, meanwhile, a spokesmen said distribution is under way through various departments, including the alumni association, of 50,000 pamphlets.

The pamphlet being distributed—"The Ohio Plan for Jobs and Progress"—is the same one about which Democratic leaders protested early last month because it was being distributed by deputy motor vehicle registrars to persons buying license plates.

Democrats oppose use of state personnel and facilities to distribute the pamphlet because issues, legislative reapportionment, would favor Republicans.

The other issues supported in the pamphlet would guarantee loans to college students, set up an industrial financing program through the state government, and float $290 million in bonds for various state improvements.

Ohio State University and Ohio University officials said it is against their policy to distribute such literature, and a Central State spokesman said no decision has been made in the matter.

Man, 21, Held In Jail In Brutal Attack On Girl, 7

HAMILTON, Ohio (AP)—Lester Amburgy, 21, South Lebanon, remained today in Butler County Jail in lieu of bonds totaling $60,000 on charges resulting from the brutal rape of a seven-year-old girl.

Police charged Amburgy with abduction for immoral purposes after the victim picked him out of a line-up Wednesday. She was taken from a hospital to do this. Several hours later, detective Thurman Koger signed a warrant charging Amburgy with rape.

Bond for the abduction charge was set at $10,000 and for the rape charge at $50,000. He will have a preliminary hearing in municipal court Tuesday.

Amburgy's arrest late Tuesday night at his home in neighborning Warren County ended an around-the-clock search that began when the little brown-haired girl staggered into a farm house east of here last Thursday night.

She told officers a man forced her into his car as she was walking home after school. The man drove her to a secluded spot, assaulted her and later put her out of the car after beating her about the face.

The girl was admitted to Mercy Hospital, where her condition now is listed as good.

Her description of the rapist was used as the basis of a police sketch credited for Amburgy's arrest.

CURSE OF THE MUMMY'S TOMB

Hints from Heloise

— By Heloise Cruse —

Dear Heloise: I always fold bath towels with their matching colored hand towel and wash cloth inside. This way, all I have to do is grab one pile of linen.

All of these matching colored towels and wash cloths are soiled at once. They are also washed at the same time. This keeps all of the matching set the same hues and colors and they will wear out at the same time.

Bleach sometimes does damage these beautiful dark-colored towels. And nothing makes me madder than to pull out a beautiful bath towel that is two shades darker than a hand towel when a guest comes.

This also saves tearing up your linen closet when you are in such a hurry looking for that matching set.

MRS. BLUMENTHAUL.

DEAR HELOISE: What hint have you tried that you thought was likely to succeed and flopped?

I'm serious.

MARY.

-:-

Ordinarily, I use a blue spray on my hair (which washes out) but at shampoo time I use a rinse. It so happened I ran out of both. A reader had suggested bluing as a rinse—so I tried it. DON'T you ever try this.

Anyone for green hair? And it will not rinse or wash out. It's horrible. Sure glad I didn't print that one.

Want another one?

Last month, we had a suggestion to put cold cream on your face and rub it with fine sandpaper in order to have skin like a baby's. . . (sounded most reasonable to me). If babies had skin that hurt like mine did after trying it they'd cry 24 hours a day! So, no matter who tells you about that hint, don't use it either.

Yes, I try all hints before publishing them.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: If you want to wear slacks with boots, the boots push the slacks up unless they have a strap underfoot.

For those slacks without straps, cut pieces of narrow elastic, buttonhole stitch over the ends of elastic and form a loop (threads back and forth and then buttonhole stitch over loop).

Sew buttons on both seams inside of both pants legs, and attach the buttonholed loops to the buttons.

By putting buttons on your other slacks you can use the same piece of plastic with all of them.

READER.

DEAR HELOISE: My hint is for people who have wooden kitchen cabinets:

I tacked a small frozen juice can lid to my wooden cabinet door (on the inside near my baking and cooking ingredients. Using a magnet, I place my recipes up at eye level on the can lid.

The magnet holds the recipe. No more smeared recipe cards for me.

MRS. JANICE JUMPER.

DEAR HELOISE: Last weekend, my teen-age daughter had a hot dog-and-hamburger party and some catsup and mustard were spilled on the tablecloth.

I've never had any luck removing either of these stains. . . please, helpful Heloise, how's about a hint:

ELINOR.

Dear Elinor: To remove the catsup, scrape off as much as possible while still wet, then wash off as much as possible with cold water. Soak in cold water for at least 30 minutes. Rub glycerine (drug-store) into the fabric while it is still damp. Leave for 30 minutes. Wash with neutral detergent and rinse as usual.

Some people just pre-treat with detergent and wash as usual. NEVER use hot water or soaps. This sometimes sets stains. If any stain remains sodium perborate bleach or hydrogen peroxide may be used.

And for the mustard stains, apply glycerine and work into the stain. Let set 30 minutes then wash with detergent solution as usual. Or:

Rub detergent into the stain after dampening it with water. May require overnight soaking. If any stain reamains use sodium perborate. Alcohol may be diluted with two parts water and sponged on the fabric.

Always be sure to test spot a hidden portion first and to follow instructions and cautions on the container.

HELOISE.

13 Industrites Paid Ohio Workers $2 Billion In 1964

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A baker's dozen of companies paid well over $2 billion to Ohio workers last year.

An Associated Press survey indicated that the state's 13 largest employers paid more than $2.1 billion in wages, salaries and benefits to their employes during 1964.

About a fourth of the total came from one company, General Motors, which has about twice as many Ohio employes as the second largest company in the Buckeye State.

A steel company, Republic, stood second in annual payroll to General Motors, which operates plants in 12 Ohio cities. Republic's Ohio payroll, though, was just over half that of GM.

As an industry, however, steel still ranks first in Ohio, employing about 107,000 workers in blast furnaces and mills and another 31,500 in foundries. Manufacture of motor vehicles is second in employment with 92,600 workers.

Another auto company, Ford, ranked third, just below Republic. General Electric rounded out the list of companies paying more than $200 million in wages and salaries in Ohio.

The list of the 13 largest employers, from the Ohio Development Department, showed the state's top employers to include those four firms, three rubber companies, two other steel producers, an aircraft firm, a bearing manufacturer, a business machines producer and another electric company.

Three of the top 13—including two rubber companies — declined to give their total annual payroll "for competitive reasons."

The state's top five payrolls were General Motors, $594 million; Republic, $320 million; Electric, $202 million and U. S. Steel $160 million.

3 Still Hospitalized With Explosion Burns

CINCINNATI (AP) — Three young workmen remained hospitalized today with burns suffered in a fire that resulted from an explosion at the O'Donnell Rubber Products Co. in suburban Westwood.

The O'Donnell fire broke out Wednesday afternoon shortly after another blaze that killed Frank P. Whitehead, 70, a semi-invalid who lived in Westwood.

The injured workmen are William Fritz, 22, and Richard Wallace, 29, both of Cincinnati, and Larry G. Carpenter, 23, Mason

$434,400 Payment To Rail Firm OK'd

CLEVELAND (AP) — Cleveland Transit System negotiators tentatively agreed Wednesday to pay the New York Central Railroad $434,400 for slightly more than 19 acres needed to extend the Rapid Transit to Cleveland Hopkins International Airport.

The Transit Board is expected to approve the purchase, which is $53,600 less than the railroad asked.

Johnson Accepts Resignation Of Treasury Chief

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson accepted with reluctance and unstinting praise, the resignation of Secretary of the Treasury Douglas Dillon Wednesday.

The effective date will be when Henry Fowler, whom Johnson has named to succeed Dillon, assumes the post.

Dillon said in a letter to Johnson dated March 15 that after 12 years of government service he felt he must return to private life. But he also told the President he hoped to be called on again from time to time in the coming years if he can be of any help.

In a letter of acceptance, Johnson said he fully intended to call on Dillon again but gave no clue as to when or in what capacity.

Dillon is a Republican, a former ambassador to France, and undersecretary of state.

Car Hits Pole, Breaks Wire

A Chester area woman's auto was damaged and a wire was knocked down when the auto struck a utility pole at State St. and Pennsylvania Ave. Wednesday, police reported.

Josephine Adkins, 43, of R. D. 1 told officers she was pulling away from a laundry but failed to turn her wheel enough and the right front struck the pole. The mishap was timed at 8:59 p. m.

The pole was jarred loose and a wire was knocked down and the right front of the 1952 sedan was damaged, officers said.

A collision at 2:39 p. m. at Minerva St. and Daisy alley involved autos operated by Mary P. Oliver, 55, of 741 Daisy Alley and Saundra White, 28, of 1900 Smithfield St., police said.

Mrs. Oliver said she was making a right turn onto Minerva St. when her auto was struck. The North Side woman told police she was headed east and glanced at the new supermarket unde construction and the autos collided.

Bliss Assumes Post As GOP's Chairman

WASHINGTON (AP) — Longtime Ohio Republican Chairman Ray C. Bliss took over as national GOP chairman today and John S. Andrews of Toledo, a former Bliss aide, replaced him in the Ohio post.

Both men and their wives were honored Wednesday night at a dinner given by 180 delegates from Ohio attending the 13th annual Republican Women's Spring Conference.

Bliss, Ohio chairman since 1949, was elected in January to replace Dean Burch.

Andrews, who has been chairman in Lucas County, was selected to succeed Bliss after the latter's resignation in Ohio.

Nonpareil Tourney Opens With 6 Contests On Tap

Semi-Final Spots At Stake Tonight In Wellsville Event

The Review Sports

THURSDAY, APRIL 1, 1965 EASTLIVERPOOL REVIEW PAGE 18

Favored Midland Appears Tonight

With the classiest field ever to enter on hand, the Blue and White Nonpareil Club Junior Basketball tournament gets rolling tonight with six outstanding games on tap.

Local fans will see over six hours of basketball tonight and Friday at Memorial Auditorium with the semi-finals and championship battles Saturday.

One eight-team bracket will be played tonight and when the firing is over two survivors will have secured semi-finals spots.

Winning teams will play twice tonight and the lower bracket will be played Friday night.

The appearance of Midland High, entered under the Gengarella banner, will highlight tonight's six contests. Midland, the pre-tourney favorite will make its appearance at 9:30 playing Hickory High School with the winner returning at 11:30 tonight.

—:—

THE tournament will open at 6:30 with Seven Mile Inn of Youngstown featuring Youngstown city stars meeting Cornecki A. C. composed of some of Beaver Valley's top talent.

At 7:30, Aliquippa High, the team that defeated Uniontown in the WPIAL tournament, playing under the Celtic Red Athletic Club will oppose Gip's All-Stars which lists players from Fifth Ave. High headed by the 6-8 Greg Howard.

—:—

A STRONG contender will appear in the 8:30 game when Auto Body, which has entered stars from Schenley, Peabody and Westinghouse High Schools in Pittsburgh, meets next year's Rochester varsity.

Ken Durrett, a talented 6-5 sophomore and Arch McGill both of Schenley are the standouts on the Auto Body five.

If Gengarella's, the defending champ, wins its first game, the Midland five would meet the winner of the Aliquippa - Gip's All-Star battle.

The 10:30 game, matches Youngstown - Cornecki winner against the Rochester - Auto Body survivor.

—:—

SIX GAMES will follow Friday night with Uniontown carrying the Riverview Florists colors making its appearance along with seven other star-studded outfits.

The possibility looms of a Midland - Uniontown match in the finals. The two Western Pennsylvania powerhouses were expected to meet in the WPIAL finals but Aliquippa busted the bubble by upsetting Uniontown only to lose by a good margin to Midland.

The Leopards of course topped Aliquippa in the WPIAL finals then went on to smother Steelton in the satte championship game.

SOMETIMES BEING a basketball coach is as tough on you as playing the game, especially for a Philadelphia 76ers coach Dolph Schayes, who yells a few instructions to his players (left) then becomes a little puzzled when his team runs into the Royals defense. But all ended well for Schayes as the 76ers downed the Royals, 119-112 in the NBA playoff. (UPI Telephoto)

Auto Body Gains Opening Victory

Semi-final spots will be up for grabs tonight as a crack field of eight teams remained in the runnning for the 1965 title in the Wellsville Jaycee cage tournament.

Auto Body Supply of East Liverpool, featuring Midland's Sim Hill & Co. successfully opened defense of its title Wednesday night before a good crowd at Beacom Memorial Gym by handing Thompson's of Wellsville a 76-58 trimming.

Auto Body may have to play tonight's quarter - final game against Eason's Insurance without the services of Hill who will be participating in the Junior Tournament at East Liverpool. However, Frank Granat, the 7-1 and his teammate Bill Mandy will appear in the Auto Body lineup tonight. Granat led Alliance to the NAIA playoffs at Kansas City this past season.

—:—

LAST YEAR'S champs will face another East Liverpool entry in Eason's in the final game tonight at 10:30.

Uncle's Pete's and Damascus will open tonight's quarter-final firing at 7:30 followed by a clash between World Book and Bible Store and Johnny's Ashland of Salem.

Shaffer's Trucking, featuring ex-Kent State players will meet Amo's Esso of Rochester at 9:30.

—:—

IN LAST night's action Hill and Red Jones, the Little All-American from Youngstown U., dropped in 20 points each to spark Auto Body's first victory. Hill's teammate Ron Brown added 16 to the attack. Styles paced Thomas with a 24-point effort.

Eason's listing some former college stars, turned in a 54-38 win over Beaver Falls, with Cal Sheffield collecting 20 points to lead Eason's balanced attack while Joe Blaha added eight. Bob Maher and Messick tallied nine each for Beaver Falls.

—:—

WORLD Book and Bible Store, the runnerup last year, scored an overwhelming 75-26 victory over Pete Amato Real Estate. Bob Baker former Steubenville Big Red standout, pitched in 18 points as all five starters broke into the double figures.

Springer led Amato's with eight points.

Shaffer's Trucking, a former champion at Wellsville, recorded a 69-48 win over Ralph's Sohio. Wallace with 20 points paced Shaffer's while Dennis dropped in 14. Jerry Pierce and Jan Burke set the pace for Ralph's with 10 points each.

Semi-final games will be played Friday with the consolation and championship battle Saturday.

Rich Allen Has First Good Day For Phillies

By MURRAY CHASS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Richie Allen was a happy holdout.

Not happy that the Philadelphia Phillies wouldn't give him what he thought he was worth but happy because he was sitting at home rather than running at spring training camp.

The National League's Rookie of the Year, who finally signed a compromise contract March 15, made the Phillies happy Wednesday, enjoying his best game of the exhibition baseball season in his team's 10-1 trouncing of Cincinnati. He rapped three hits, including his first homer, and drove in three runs.

Allen went into the game with a .130 batting average and four runs batted in, but that meager showing didn't have the 23-year-old third baseman upset.

"I'm glad now that I missed all that time here," he explained. "I feel so much stronger than I did last spring. I didn't say anything about it at the time, but I was weak when the season began last year."

At this time last year, Allen was hitting .300, had six homers and 17 RBI. During the regular season he batted .318, slugged 29 homers and knocked in 91 runs.

Ken Johnson hurled five perfect innings, then allowed one run and three hits in the sixth inning in Houston's 4-1 triumph that halted the Chicago White Sox' five-game winning streak.

Washington drubbed the New York Mets 6-0 with the Senators' Phil Ortega permitting just one hit — Ed Kranepool's leadoff single in the fourth — in seven innings. Ken McMullen drove a two-run homer in the sixth.

In other games Minnesota stopped Baltimore 5-1, Detroit downed Milwaukee 4-2, San Francisco beat Boston 6-3, the New York Yankees snapped a four-game losing streak in dropping Kansas City 6-3 and the Los Angeles Dodgers defeated St. Louis 7-3.

Golden Gloves Head Killed In Auto Accident

LAWRENCE, Kan. (AP) — Charles Calvin Myers, noted for his work with young Golden Gloves boxers in the Kansas City region, and Dr. Aldo Vigliano, a psychologist at the University of Kansas Medical Center, were killed Wednesday night when the doctor's car careened across the median strip of the Kansas Turnpike and crashed into Myers' station wagon.

Myers would have been 64 on Friday. He was a salesman for a wholesale coffee firm in Kansas City and was returning from a business trip to Leavenworth and Lawrence. He was killed immediately.

Dr. Vigliano was 40 and was on the way to his home in Lawrence from the Medical Center in Kansas City, Kan.

Myers had been director of the Kansas City regional Golden Gloves tournament for 10 years and before that coached and trained the Kansas City team in the national tournaments.

He was national president of the Golden Gloves Association in 1961 and directed the 1965 tournament in Kansas City two weeks ago. He had been connected with amateur boxing for almost 50 years, first as a fighter.

Greensboro Hosts Pros For $65,000

GREENSBORO, N.C. (AP) — Professional golf's big names were out in force today for the start of the $65,000 Greater Greensboro Open Tournament, hoping to return to normal a tour that has provided a series of surprises in 11 previous weeks.

Ten Players have won tournaments, with Doug Sanders, who put together back-to-back triumphs at Pensacola and Doral in Miami, Fla., last month, the only two-time winner.

The top stars of last year have had trouble winning. Billy Casper, winner of the Bob Hope Desert Classic in California, is the only member of last year's top 13 money winners to score this year. And only three of the top 39 of last year have won in '65.

Four men, George Archer, Rod Funseth, Bert Weaver and Dick Hart, have achieved their first tour victories this year and three winners, Hart, Paul Harney and Wes Ellis are primarily club professionals.

Of last year's 25 money winning leaders, only 11 are on the current list.

All of which underscores the problems the name players have been facing. Of course, fellows like Arnold Palmer, Tony Lema, Gary Player and Bobby Nichols haven't played the full tour because of the pressure of other matters.

But with the classic Augusta Masters coming up next week they all are here tightening their games and eying the GGO record purse which includes a $10,000 first prize. The four-day 72-hole tournament is being played over the 7,000-yard, par 71 Sedgefield Country Club course.

Sanders has locked up one of two remaining Masters invitations with his fine winter play, but the other berth will be determined on the basis of play here. A half-dozen players are in the running for it, with Jacky Cupit, Harold Kneece and Bert Weaver the top contenders.

The field also includes Julius Boros, who beat Sanders in a playoff when the latter was defending champion last year; Art Wall, Billy Maxwell, Dow Finsterwald and Mike Souchak.

Ailing Ken Venturi and Jack Nicklaus are the principal absentees.

Spahn Is Hardest Worker On Mets

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP) — If Warren Spahn wins 20 games for the New York Mets they should relax the rules and rush his left arm to Cooperstown immediately.

Spahn, crowding his 44th birthday, is one of the better stories of baseball's spring training season. He works harder than any Met, with the possible exceptions of Casey Stengel and Yogi Berra. When he isn't pitching, he is helping others in his dual job of pitcher-coach or hitting a home run against the New York Yankees, as he did in a game won by the Mets.

"Do you consider yourself a pitcher or a coach?," a visitor asked.

"A pitcher first and a coach second," he replied. "I am going to be a starting pitcher unless some youngster comes along and chases me out. I like the idea of competing with young people. It has kept me going.

"When the day comes that I know I can't do the job, I'll recognize it. I don't want to knock my head against a brick wall.

"Last year I got off bad at Milwaukee. My record proves I'm always better in the second half but when my time came I wasn't pitching. My timing was messed up, but at the end of the year I was straightened out. Bobby Bragan believed I'd had it. I don't care about his opinion. My job is to prove him wrong.

"Every year is a challenge, this one no more than any other. I sold my services over here to pitch and I'd love to be in there opening day."

Spahn is proud of his work with the young pitchers in the Met training camp and does not anticipate any of the problems that plagued Whitey Ford when he tried the dual role of pitcher-coach for the Yankees last year.

And he is far from ready to call it a career on the mound. He still is shooting at distant goals.

"I came here with one intent — to be a starting pitcher," he said. "There are a lot of things I want to do. Winning 400 games is one. I have 356 and I know it isn't going to be easy to get 44 more.

"I'd like to break the record for pitchers hitting home runs. I have 33 and I think the record is 36. I'd like to move up in the list of all-time winners. I'd like to get the National League record of 373. I already hold the record for left-handers. I'd like to get a 14th season as a 20-game winner if possible.

"I want to start and I want to win. But I don't want to be a hanger-on. When I can't pitch I want to stay in the game as a coach or manager. But right now I'd like to pitch opening day."

Local Entry Bows Out Of Tourney

East Liverpool's entry in a tournament at Bethel, Pa. for 12-year-olds was eliminated 32-27 Wednesday night by East Liberty Sacred Heart, last year's runnerup.

East Liverpool trailed 17-5 at halftime but made a comeback in the second half only to fall short. Randy McVay scored seven points and Mike Smith five in a losing effort.

East Liverpool has entered a team in a similar tournament at Braddock.

Area Track Meet Set For Palestine April 10

EAST PALESTINE — The fifth annual Tri-State Coaches Track Meet will be held April 10 at the high school with 47 schools invited to take part.

W. E. Ward, beginning his 40th year as track coach here, is in charge of the meet for West Virginia, Pennsylvania and Ohio schools.

The city school track squad's annual carnival will be held Friday and Saturday nights at the high school gym. Proceeds are used for the team.

76ers Down Royals, Will Face Boston

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — "We simply outdefensed them, and outshot them . . . and, of course, we did have Wilt Chamberlain."

Coach Dolph Schayes of the Philadelphia 76ers was happily pondering his team's 119-112 victory over the the Cincinnati Royals Wednesday night which wrapped up the Eastern Division semifinal playoffs three games to one and gave them a shot at the Boston Celtics in the finals.

There was no arguing Chamberlain spelled the difference. Consider: he scored 38 points, high for the night; had 26 rebounds, also high; blocked 10 Royal shots that seemed headed straight for the basket and handed off five assists.

Cincinnati just couldn't stop him. The three men who took turns trying to guard him committed a dozen fouls and Chamberlain, usually a poor shot at the free-throw line, sank 10 of 16 tries.

"That was the difference right there," said Schayes.

But though Chamberlain was the standout, Schayes said it was a team effort all the way.

The boxscore attests to that. Hal Greer had 25 points, Chet Walker 20, Lucious Jackson 16.

Cincinnati didn't go down without fighting led by their great stars, Jerry Lucas, with 35 points, and Oscar Robertson, still favoring a sore right foot, with 24.

The opening game of the best-of-7 Eastern Division final series will be played at Boston Sunday afternoon.

The Western Division final best-of-7 series gets under way Saturday night with Baltimore at Los Angeles.

The Baltimore Colts won seven of their eight home National Football League games last season.

Patterson And Chuvalo Rematch Next Big Bout

NEW YORK (AP) — Jose Torres talks of fighting Cassius Clay, Joey Giardello and Floyd Patterson. Welterweight king Emile Griffith eyes Giardello's middleweight crown. But the next big fight coming up probably will be a return between Patterson and George Chuvalo.

"We hope to sign Patterson and Chuvalo in a week or so for May 10 or 17 at the Garden," said matchmaker Teddy Brenner today. "Patterson says he wants Chuvalo again and Chuvalo wants Patterson."

Patterson, the former heavyweight champion, whipped the husky Canadian champion in a slugfest at the Garden that touched off the current boxing boom. The 12-rounder drew a standing-room crowd of 19,100 and $166,423 on Feb. 1.

Torres, who dethroned light-heavyweight champion Willie Pastrano on a ninth-round technical knockout and probably sent the onetime boxing master into retirement, won't be available again until June.

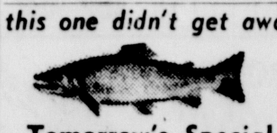

Boxing's latest glamor gladiator plans a month-long vacation in his native Puerto Rico and Mexico. Griffith is heading for a month's holiday in his native Virgin Islands. The welterweight boss has been a busy fighter and he won't fight again until June.

Both champions bore few marks of their triumphs in the championship doubleheader that lured 18,112 fans and a record Garden gate of $239,556 Tuesday night.

Torres put Pastrano on the floor in the sixth round—the first time in his 13½-year career that the Will of the Wisp had been dropped—and gave him a fierce battering. Griffith decisively outpointed Cuban-born Jose Stable in 15 rounds.

Charles Benoit, senior from Agawam, Mass., captains the Yale lacrosse team.

Stanley Cup Playoffs On Tap Tonight

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

Lord Stanley's coveted cup, hockey's most cherished piece of hardware, goes up for grabs starting tonight with the National Hockey League's top four clubs aiming at the oldest trophy competed for by professional athletes in North America.

The Detroit Red Wings host the Chicago Black Hawks in the opening game of one semifinal series while defending Cup champion Toronto, winner of three straight playoffs, visits Montreal in the other opener.

Both series are best-of-7 struggles with the winners meeting in another best-of-7. The prize is worth about $1,500 per man to the winning team as well as possession of the Stanley Cup, first purchased in 1893 for $48.67.

Detroit and Montreal boast the two hottest scorers in the league. Red Wing center Norm Ullman led the league with 42 goals, closing with a spurt and finishing just four points behind scoring champion Stan Mikita of Chicago.

Montreal captain Jean Beliveau, last member of the Canadiens' dynasty that ruled the league when Montreal won a record five straight cups in the late fifties, closed with 13 goals in his last 13 games for a total of 20 this season.

Red Wing captain Alex Delvecchio summed up Detroit player feelings with a confident "only eight more games to win."

Ladies PGA Paced By Kathy Whitworth

QUINCY, Ill. (AP) — Kathy Whitworth continues as the leading money winner of the Ladies Professional Golf Association.

In the early season she has won $2,535 to take a slim lead over Sandra Haynie, who has won $2,050, according to the LPGA figures.

Golden Gloves Champ Joining Pro Ranks

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The brief reign is about over for young Jerry Quarry as the national Golden Gloves heavyweight champion.

The 19-year-old Quarry, from suburban Huntington Park, disclosed today he is turning professional and will apply to the state athletic commission for a license.

The 6-foot, 185-pound Quarry literally blasted his way to the Golden Gloves crown at Kansas City last month. He scored five straight knockouts, a feat unmatched as far as the tournament records show.

Olympic Swimming Champ May Turn Pro

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Olympic gold medal-winning swimmer Donna de Varona, 17, was expected to announce today her decision to leave the amateur ranks for a professional career.

Miss de Varona, of Santa Clara, Calif., winner of two gold medals for the United States in 1964, was due here en route to New York for a television appearance.

On the TV show she will discuss a position with Sports Illustrated magazine and arrangements for bathing suit endorsements.

Home Team Errors Before First Pitch

PORTERVILLE, Calif. (AP) — The home baseball team errored before the first pitch was thrown Wednesday and nobody kept score.

The Tulare Western High School team boarded a bus to Porterville. Meanwhile, Porterville High School's players departed by bus for Tulare.

A telephone call finally brought the Porterville team back to its home diamond but only a few practice innings were played before darkness.

Voyage Not So Bon

Seasickness Upsets Planned South Seas Trip

OXNARD, Calif. (AP)—Four men—two of them ministers — set sail March 15 in a 36-foot schooner on a mission to Christianize the natives of South Seas islands. More than 50 friends and relatives gathered dockside to bid them bon voyage.

Today they are back in this Southern California port village, after a voyage that wasn't so bon.

They got seasick, explained the Rev. Lyle T. Burchette upon their return Wednesday.

Further, he said: "Each one of us thought the other was well experienced in the ways of the ocean before we left, but we found out otherwise once we got on the other side of San Clemente Island." (San Clemente Island is visible from the mainland on a clear day.)

After leaving Oxnard, the Rev. Mr. Burchette said, they sailed south to San Pedro and then south again to San Diego, where the journey ended.

The Rev. Mr. Burchette, 32, associate pastor of the Central Assembly of God Church in nearby Ventura, was accompanied by the Rev. Hendrick Den Haring, 34, an evangelist from Rotterdam, Holland; the boat's owner and skipper, Blair Wilber, 30, of San Pedro, and Wilber's brother Allen, 28, a former Navy lieutenant.

The men planned the venture for more than a year and hoped to establish churches in Hawaii, Guam and ultimately the Marshall Islands, 5,000 miles away.

But because of their seasickness and inexperience in oceangoing, they spent only four days at sea, sailing a total of 200 miles.

The mission will not be entirely abandoned, however, he said. They took with them 5,000 Bibles, 6,000 pounds of religious tracts and a half ton of other religious materials and, said the Rev. Mr. Burchette, "We are going to mail it all to as many post offices as we can find in the Pacific."

Pleasure-Bent For Florida

College Students Launch Their Spring Pilgrimage

By The Associated Press

They started swarming to the beaches at Daytona and Fort Lauderdale the third week in March — vacationing collegians temporarily released from their books and pleasure-bent for sun and surf.

It was the annual spring pilgrimage from the campus which was expected to reach its peak Easter week.

This year there also was another growing exodus, a segment of the student population passing up the holiday fun for civil rights causes.

And "some actually plan to go home for the holidays," said a spokesman at Washington and Lee University.

The first 10,000 pilgrims to the Florida beaches came from the Carolinas, Georgia, Alabama, Tennessee and Kentucky. Many more thousands were expected.

"They'll be back with their suntans and I'll be very envious of them," said Ohio State Dean John Bonner.

Generally, the campuses of the South and East and Midwest pour out students toward Florida, Bermuda and Nassau; the West sends water skiers to the spring runoff on the Pecos River at Carlsbad, N.M., and surfers to Mazatlan and Guaymas in Mexico and to Los Angeles.

One group of University of Utah students took a fling at Las Vegas' gambling tables.

The word among the fraternity brothers at the University of Missouri was that West Palm Beach would be the Florida spot this season. At the University of Virginia the "in" sites were Bermuda and Nassau.

For Duke men the message was Nassau and at least three fraternities chartered boats to take several hundred students there.

The popular Daytona and Fort Lauderdale spots prepared for the usual thousands. The Daytona Beach City Council appropriated $10,000 for entertainment — and to hire reserve policemen to handle an anticipated 80,000-100,000 pouthful visitors.

Not rivaling the pleasure seekers in number was the movement of students to join in civil rights projects.

These included Notre Dame undergraduates preparing to help rebuild a bombed Negro church in Mississippi and make a study of Chicago's slums for a tutoring program.

Junior Editors Quiz on WASHINGTON, D.C.

QUESTION: Has Washington, D.C., been the nation's capital ever since the Pilgrims landed?

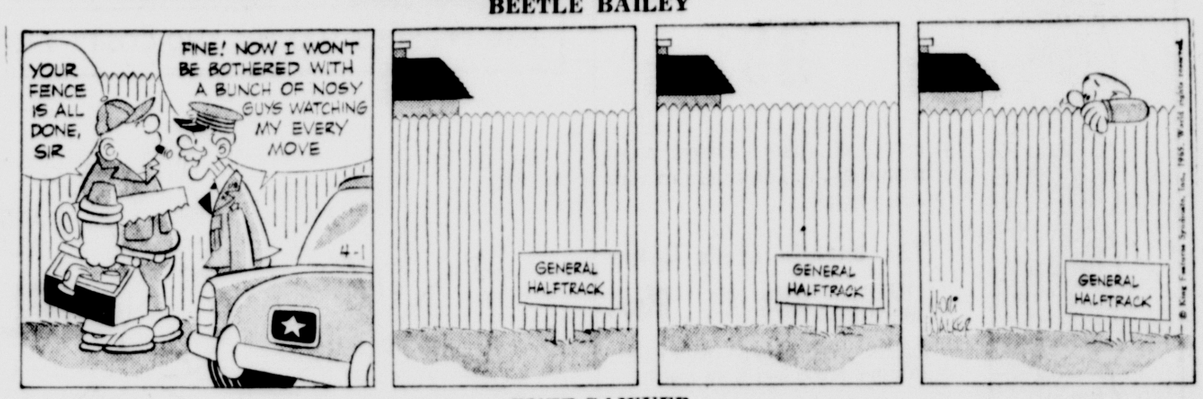

★ ★ ★

ANSWER: When the Pilgrims landed in 1620, the birth of the United States of America was a long way off, for we did not become a separate nation until 1776. At first, the U.S. government was centered in Philadelphia, and following this in several other cities. But Congress, as early as 1783, had decided it should create a federal city to act as a center of government. In 1790, the site was located on the Potomac River. The first president was empowered to select the exact spot. In 1791, President Washington chose the present site, then largely farm and swamp land, and appointed Major Pierre Charles L'Enfant, a French engineer, to work out a plan for the city. L'Enfant laid out a grandoise master plan of streets in square blocks, with broad avenues crossing these diagonally and leading toward the Capitol Building which he placed on a hill. Although L'Enfant was later dismissed, the city developed largely in accordance with his plan. The first session of Congress in the new city was held in November of 1800. Growing slowly at first, with such buildings as the White House (upper right) rising abruptly out of a muddy landscape, the city developed rapidly after the Civil War and became a majestic national shrine as well as the busy seat of America's federal government.

FOR YOU TO DO: We hope some day that you may visit our beautiful capital. Meanwhile, check your knowledge of the three great sights we illustrate in lower part of picture. Fill in the missing letters. From left to right are the C....., the W.....M..... and the L.....M.....

Parley Due U.N. Okay

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — The 113 other members of the United Nations are expected to approve a call by the Soviet Union for all of them to join in a disarmament meeting at U.N. headquarters this month.

The United States said it did not object to a meeting of the disarmament commission, which is made up of all U.N. members. But Chief Delegate Adlai E. Stevenson said his government would have preferred a meeting of the 18-nation disarmament committee in Geneva because it was a more practical forum for considering concrete proposals.
